

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the EPHESIANS

Above principalities, above all might and dominion.
In heavenly places at the Father's right hand, Above every name that is named, in the world that is and is to come.
And, according to the good pleasure of His will, we are accepted in His love, Blessed with all spiritual blessings in Him in heavenly places far above.

EPHESIANS 1

¹Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints who are at Ephesus, and faithful in Jesus Christ:
²grace and peace be to you, from God the Father and from our Lord Jesus Christ.
³Blessed be the God and Father of Jesus Christ the Lord,
who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in heavenly places in Christ.
⁴For as He has chosen us in Him from the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before Him in love, ⁵having predestined us unto the adoption of sons by Christ Jesus to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will, ⁶to the praise of the glory of His grace, wherein
He has accepted us in the Beloved.
⁷In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our sins, according to the riches of His grace, ⁸which He gave abundantly towards us in all wisdom and prudence, ⁹having revealed to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He has purposed in His own self.
¹⁰That in the dispensation of the fullness of time, He might then gather together in one all things in Christ, both that which are in heaven and in the earth, in Him.
¹¹In Him we have obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to the purpose of Him who works all things after the counsel of His own will,
¹²that we, who first trusted in Christ, should be to the praise of His glory.
¹³In Him you yourselves also trusted after you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation;
in whom after you believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise,

¹⁴who is the guarantee of our inheritance, until the redemption of the purchased possession,
to the praise of His glory.

¹⁵Therefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and your love to all the saints,

¹⁶ceased not to give thanks for you, making mention in my prayers of you,

¹⁷that the God of Jesus Christ our Lord, the Father of glory, may give to you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him.

¹⁸The eyes of your understanding being enlightened, that you will know what is the hope of His calling,

what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints,

¹⁹and what is the exceeding greatness of His power towards us who have believed, according to the working of His mighty power

²⁰which He worked in Christ Jesus when He raised Him from the dead and set Him at His own right hand, in heavenly places,

²¹far above dominion and might, principalities and powers, and every name that is named, not in this world only, but also in the world to come,

²²and has put all things under His feet and gave Him to be head over all things, to the church

²³which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all;

who is far above.

BREAKING down walls:

BA work on us, in us and through us.

The workmanship of the Lord we are,

Created to do good works in Christ Jesus.

A building fitly framed, His holy temple to be.

We are saved by grace and not by works, A building of the Master Builder, so no man can boast;

A holy habitation, Christ being the chief cornerstone,

Breaking down walls.

A work in us, to work through us, to dwell in us also.

EPHESIANS 2

¹And He has now resurrected you, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

²in which in times past you walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now works in the children of disobedience.

³Among whom also in times past we all had our conversation, in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and mind, and were by nature the children of wrath, as others are.

⁴But God, who is rich in mercy, for His great love with which He loved us all,

⁵even when we were dead in sins, has resurrected us together with Christ.

(By grace you are saved; you are saved by grace),

⁶and He has raised us up together and made us to sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus.

⁷That in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness towards us, through Jesus Christ.

⁸For by grace you are saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, ⁹not by works, lest any man should boast.

¹⁰For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God has ordained in advance that we should walk in them.

¹¹Therefore, remember that you were once Gentiles in the flesh in time past, who are called "The Uncircumcision" by those who are called "The Circumcision" made in the flesh by hands,

¹²and at that time, you were without Christ, aliens from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers from the covenant of promise, having no hope, without God in the world.

¹³Now in Christ Jesus, you who sometimes were at a distance, are brought near by the blood of Christ the Lord.

¹⁴For He is our peace, who has made us both one, and has broken down the middle wall of partition between us,

¹⁵having abolished in His flesh the enmity thereof, even the Law of commandments that is contained in ordinance, to create one new man, from the two, and so making peace, ¹⁶and that He might reconcile both unto God by the cross, in one body, slaying the enmity thereby.

¹⁷And He came and preached peace to you who were afar and those who were near.

¹⁸For through Him we have access by one Spirit to the Father.

¹⁹Now you are therefore strangers and foreigners no more, but fellow citizens with the saints of the household of God,

²⁰and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets

Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone,

²¹in whom all the building, fitly framed together, grows unto a holy temple in the Lord, ²²in whom you are also built together for a habitation of God through the Spirit.

Let principalities and powers know,

In the inner man His Spirit has strengthened you.

In love you are grounded with strong roots; And for you He is able to do by the Spirit that works in you,

Exceedingly abundantly more,

Much more than we ask Him to.

EPHESIANS 3

¹For this cause, I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles, ²if you have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me towards you,
³how by revelation He has made the mystery known to me,
 (as I wrote about before briefly, ⁴whereby, when you read you may understand the knowledge I have in the mystery of Christ), ⁵which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, and now it has been revealed to His apostles and His prophets by the Spirit of God, ⁶that the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs of the same body, and also partakers of His promise in Christ by the gospel, ⁷of which I was duly made a minister, according to the gift of God's grace given by the effective working of His power.
⁸This grace was granted to me, who is less than the least of all saints, that among the Gentiles I should preach the unsearchable riches of Christ, ⁹and to cause all men to see what is the fellowship of the mystery which has been hidden in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ, from the beginning;
¹⁰to the intent that now in this age, the manifold wisdom of God might be made known by the church, to principalities and powers in heavenly places, ¹¹according to the eternal purpose that He has purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹²in whom we have boldness and access by faith in Him, with confidence.
¹³Therefore I desire that you do not lose heart at my tribulation for you, which is your boast.
¹⁴For this cause, I bow my knees to the Father of Jesus Christ our Lord, ¹⁵of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, ¹⁶that He may grant you, in accordance with the riches of His glory, that you be strengthened with might by His Spirit in the inner man, ¹⁷and that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith;
 and that you, being rooted and grounded in love, ¹⁸may be able to comprehend, with all saints, what is the breadth, the length, the depth, the height;
¹⁹and may know the love of Christ that passes knowledge; and that you may be filled likewise with all of the fullness of God.
²⁰Now unto Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly more than we can think or ask, according to His power that works in us, ²¹be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

- Most Righteous God, make me a grace dispenser; bless through me. Amen.
- Loving Father, I refuse to hold on to, or restrict Your flow through me. Amen.

OH to be renewed in the spirit of the mind,
The wind that drives the thinking, to think on Him all the time.
To put off the old man and corrupt communications,

And rather to be tender-hearted and kind. Oh, to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace and know He gives gifts to men for the perfecting of the church.

A working body fitly joined will create natural growth.

There is one God and Father, who is through all and in all.

EPHESIANS 4

¹I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that you walk worthy of the calling you have been called into,

²with all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, bearing with one another in love, ³endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

⁴There is one body and one Spirit, just as you are called in one hope of your calling;

⁵one Lord, one faith, one baptism;

⁶one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

⁷But each of us was given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

⁸Therefore He says, "When He ascended up on high, He led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men."

⁹Now that He ascended, was it not that He descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

¹⁰He that descended is the same who ascended, far above the heavens, so that He may fill all things.

¹¹And He gave some to be apostles, some evangelists, some prophets, some teachers and some pastors,

¹²for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ,

¹³until we all come to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ.

¹⁴That from now, we are no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried with every wind of doctrine by the design of man, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive,

¹⁵but speaking the truth in love, we may grow up in all things, into Him who is the head, even Christ,

¹⁶from whom the whole body joined and knit by what every joint supplies to it, according to the effective working in the measure of every part, causes the body to increase unto the edifying of itself in love.

¹⁷This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you do not walk as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their minds,

¹⁸having their understanding darkened, and being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that exists in them because of the blindness of their hearts;

¹⁹who being past feeling themselves, have separated themselves to lasciviousness, to do all uncleanness with greediness.

²⁰But you have not learnt Christ after this manner,

²¹if indeed you have heard Him and have been taught by Him.

As the truth is in Christ Jesus,

²²put off concerning former conduct, the former person, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts,

²³and be renewed in the spirit of your mind,

²⁴and that you put on the new man, which is created after God in righteousness and true holiness.

²⁵Therefore, putting lies away, let every man speak the truth to his neighbor, for we are members of each other.

²⁶Be angry yet do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your wrath, ²⁷neither give place to the devil.

²⁸Let him who stole, steal no more, but rather let him labor with his hands, working the thing that is good, that he may have to give to those in need.

²⁹Let no corrupt communication come out of your mouth, but that which is good to edifying, that it may minister grace to the hearers.

³⁰And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, whereby you are sealed until the day of redemption.

³¹Let all bitterness, wrath, clamor and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice, ³²and be kind to each other, tender-hearted, forgiving each other even as God has forgiven you, for Christ the Lord's sake.

HE loved her, how He loved her!

He loved His bride so.

So much that He died to save her and was abused so she could glow.

He washed her with water by the word, So that being glorious she would shine.

Yes, it is the love of Christ for His church.

Men: so ought you to love your wives.

EPHESIANS 5

¹Be followers of God as dear children.

²Walk in love, as Christ loved us so, and has given Himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God, as a sweet-smelling aroma.

³But fornication and all uncleanness or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becoming of the saints.

⁴Neither filthiness nor foolish talking, nor jesting not appropriate, but rather giving of thanks.

⁵For this you know, that no fornicator, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

⁶Let no man deceive you with vain words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the children of disobedience in this world.

⁷Do not be partakers with them therefore.

⁸You were once in darkness, but now you are the children of light in the Lord; walk then as children of light,

⁹(for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, all righteousness and all truth), ¹⁰proving what is acceptable to the Lord.

¹¹And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather expose them.

¹²For it is a shame to begin speaking of the things they do in secret.

¹³But all things that are exposed are made manifest in the light, for it is the light that makes all things known.

¹⁴Therefore He says, "Awake, you who sleep; arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light."

¹⁵See that you walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, ¹⁶redeeming the time, for the days are evil.

¹⁷Therefore do not be unwise, but understand what the will of the Lord is,

¹⁸and do not be drunken with wine that is in excess;

but be filled with the Spirit.

¹⁹Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your hearts to the Lord.

²⁰Giving thanks to God the Father for all things always in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

²¹Submitting yourselves to each other in the fear of God.

²²Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands as to the Lord Himself, ²³for the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church, and is the savior of the body.

²⁴And as the church is subject to Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in everything.

²⁵And husbands, love your wives as Christ so loved the church and gave Himself for it, ²⁶that He might sanctify and make it clean with the washing of water by the word.

²⁷That He might present it to Himself a glorious church, not having spot, nor wrinkle nor any such thing, that it should be holy and without blemish, ²⁸so ought men to love their wives as their very own body.

He who loves his wife loves himself.

²⁹For no man ever hates his own flesh, but rather nourishes it and cherishes it, as the Lord, the church.

³⁰For we are members of His body, His flesh and His bones.

³¹For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife and the two shall be one flesh.

³²This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

³³Nevertheless let every one of you in particular, so love his wife as his own self.

And let the wife ensure that she respects her own husband likewise.

6. Follow fornication, filthiness or any fleshy act and you fail the kingdom and inflame the wrath of God.

No excuse, you must stand, so put God's whole armor on: righteousness, truth and salvation, To fend and thrust, have God's word at hand. EPHESIANS 6

¹Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.
²Honor your father and your mother, which is the first commandment with promise,
³that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth.
⁴And, fathers, I now speak to you: do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
⁵Servants, be obedient to those who are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling as to Christ, in sincerity of heart;
⁶not with eye-service as men-pleasers are, but as the servants of Christ;
⁷doing the will of God from the heart, serving with goodwill as to the Lord and not as to man;
⁸knowing that any good thing any man does, he shall receive the same of the Lord, whether he is bond or free.
⁹And you, masters, do the same things to them, putting aside threatening, knowing that your Master is also in heaven, neither is there respect of persons with Him.
¹⁰And finally, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might;
¹¹put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.
¹²For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers, against spiritual wickedness in high places, against the rulers of the darkness of this world.
¹³Therefore take unto you the 'must haves,' the whole armor of the living God, that in the evil day you may be able to withstand, and having done all, to stand.
¹⁴Stand therefore, having your waist belted with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness, ¹⁵and your feet shod in readiness with the preparation of the gospel of peace.

¹⁶Above all, take the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench the fiery darts of the wicked;

¹⁷and take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

¹⁸Praying always in the Spirit with all prayer and supplication, watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints.

¹⁹And pray for me that I be given utterance, that I may boldly open my mouth to make the mystery of the gospel known;

²⁰for which I am an ambassador in bonds, that in these bonds I may speak boldly as I ought to speak.

²¹But that you also may know my affairs and how I do, Tychicus a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, will make all things known to you.

²²For this same purpose, I have sent him to you, that you may know our affairs, and that he may comfort your hearts.

²³Peace be to the brethren, and love and faith from God the Father and Jesus Christ the Lord.

²⁴Grace be to all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity! Amen.
