

The Book of MICAH

LIKE wax before fire, so shall the hills be
When the Lord treads on the high places of the earth!
Sinful Samaria shall become a heap,
For He will give a just reward for all your works!

MICAH 1

¹The word of the Lord that came to Micah of Moresheth, in the days of Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, Judah's kings, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

²Hear, all you peoples!

Listen, O earth and all that is in it! From His holy temple, let the Lord be a witness against you.

³For the Lord is coming out of His place; He will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.

⁴The mountains will melt under Him, and the valleys will crack like wax before the fire, like waters poured down a steep place.

⁵All this is for the transgression of Jacob, and for the sins of the house of Israel.

“What is the transgression of Jacob? Is not Samaria?

What are the high places of Judah? Are they not Jerusalem?

⁶Therefore I will make Samaria a heap of ruins in the field, places for planting a vineyard.

I will pour down her stones into the valley, and I will uncover her foundations.

⁷All her carved images shall be beaten to pieces, and all her wealth from her harlotry shall be burnt with fire.

And I will lay all her idols desolate, for she gathered it from the pay of a harlot, and to the pay of a harlot they shall return.” Therefore I will wail and howl.

I will go stripped and naked.

⁸I will make a wailing like the jackals, and a mourning like the owls, ⁹for her wounds are incurable. It has come to Judah.

It has come to the gate of My people, to Jerusalem.

¹⁰Tell it not in Gath, weep not at all; in the house of Beth-le-aphrah, roll yourself in the dust, ¹¹pass by in naked shame, you inhabitant of Shaphir.

The inhabitant of Zaanan does not go out. Beth-ezel mourns.

Its place to stand is taken away from you.

¹²For the inhabitant of Maroth waited for good anxiously, but disaster came down from the Lord to the gate of Jerusalem.

¹³O you inhabitants of Lachish, harness the chariot to the swift steeds. (She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion), for the transgressions of Israel were found in you.

¹⁴Therefore you shall give presents to Moresheth-gath.

The houses of Achzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.

¹⁵O inhabitant of Mareshah, I will bring an heir to you; the glory of Israel shall come to Adullam.

¹⁶Make yourself bald and cut off your hair, because of your precious children; enlarge your baldness like an eagle, for they shall go from you into captivity.

PRAYER POINTS

- King of all kings, arise in Your mighty love and stir the hearts of Your people to respond with urgency to the groaning of the earth. Amen.
- Let the grace of the living God sweep the earth and melt the resistance in the heart of man to the gospel, in the name of Jesus.
- Heal me O Lord, and I will be healed; save me O Lord and I will be saved. I bow before You in shame and seek Your forgiveness. Amen.
- Merciful Father, forgive me of presumptuous sins. I refuse to rage against You by parading my sins instead of being remorseful. Amen.
- Let the blood of Jesus Christ cleanse me of every sin; I refuse to be captive to sin and in bondage to the devil. Amen.

DEVISE evil, is this what you do?
The Lord shall devise evil against you!

You command the prophets not to prophesy,
And false prophets have been your desire.
But I will gather the sheep into the fold;
Then shall the breaker come.
When they break out and pass through the gate,
The Lord will lead them on!

MICAH 2

¹Woe to those who devise iniquity in their heads and who work evil on their beds!
At morning light they practice it,
because it is in the power of their hand.
²They covet fields and take them by violence, also houses, and seize them.
They oppress a man and his house,
a man and his inheritance.
³Therefore, thus says the Lord:
“Behold, against this family I am devising disaster, from which you cannot remove your necks;
neither shall you walk in pride, for this is an evil time.
⁴In the day one shall take up a proverb against you,
and lament with a bitter lamentation, saying:
“We are utterly destroyed!
He has changed the heritage of my people.
O how has He removed it from me!
Turning away, He has divided our fields.”
⁵Therefore you have no one to determine boundaries by lot,
in the congregation of the Lord.
⁶“Do not prophesy,” you say to those who prophesy,
so they shall not prophesy to you.
They shall not return insult to insult.
⁷You who are named the house of Jacob,
is the Spirit of the Lord restricted?
Are these His doings?
Are not My words profitable to him who walks uprightly?
⁸“Lately My people have risen up as an enemy to steal the robe with the garment from those who trust you as they pass by, like men returned from war.
⁹“You cast out the women of My people from their pleasant houses.
You have taken away My glory forever from their children.
¹⁰“Arise and depart, for this is not your rest.
Because it is defiled, it shall destroy,
yes, with total destruction.
For this is what you do.
¹¹“If a man walks in a false spirit and speaks a lie, saying, ‘I will prophesy to you in the spirit of strong drink and wine,’
he would be the prophet of this people.
¹²“I will surely assemble all of you, O Jacob,
I will surely gather the remnant of Israel.
I will put them together like sheep in Bozrah, like the flocks in the midst of their pasture.

They shall make a loud noise because of their many people.
¹³“The one who breaks open will come up before them.
They will break out, pass through the gate,
and go out by it.
Their king will pass before them,
with the Lord at their head.”

CWDS Bible Quotes

1. When you plan evil you procure shame, you practice evil you procure disaster, you oppress man, God answers you.
2. Remove your hand from evil to remove your neck from disaster; harden your neck against God and it will become too inflexible to be withdrawn from His wrath.
3. You may shut down the voice of the prophet, but you cannot shut down the impact of the word; it is loaded with the potential to fulfil itself.
4. The word is not your enemy if you are not an enemy of the word; it will do good if you hear and heed it.
5. It is better to be an enemy of sin than an enemy of the Lord; it is futile to fight God.
6. The Lord Himself will lead His people from triumph to triumph, culminating in eternal triumphant rest.

PRAYER POINTS

- Holy Spirit, I invite You to take full control of my heart and my life; let no evil thought find the place to germinate in my heart, in the name of Jesus.
- By the power of the Holy Spirit, I break every evil tie with sin and come with tenderness of heart to Your throne, O Lord. Amen.
- O God my Father, extend Your right arm from heaven above and let Your word released in the earth by Your Son and Your prophets pierce the hearts of men on its way to divine fulfillment. Amen.
- O how I love Your word, O God; it is the delight of my heart and the joy of my soul.
- Let wisdom arise in the hearts of everyone who opposes Your word and makes You their enemy. By the power, grace and the loving-kindness of the living God, we command men to stand down and live, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
- Lead me to rest O God; order my victories and lead me to rest. Amen.

WILL you not know judgment?
Will you love evil and the good spurn?
Will the Lord hear you when you cry,
Or must His face from you be turned?
Will you judge and teach for money?
Will you say the Lord is here?
Shall no evil come upon you,
Or will you become ruin heaps everywhere?

MICAH 3

¹And I said, “Hear, now, O heads of Jacob and you rulers of the house of Israel.
Is it not for you to know justice?
²“You who hate the good and love evil;

who strip the skin from My people,
and the flesh from their bones.
3^aWho also eat the flesh of My people, and flay their skin from them also.
Who break their bones,
and chop them in pieces like meat for the pot,
like flesh for the cauldron.”

4^aThen they will cry to the Lord,
but He will not hear them.
He will even hide His face from them at that time,

because they have been evil in their deeds.
5^aThus says the Lord concerning the prophets who make my people err, who chant, “Peace,”

while they chew with their teeth,
and who prepare war against him;
who put nothing into their mouths.

6^a“Therefore you shall have night without vision, and you shall have darkness without divination.

The sun shall go down on the prophets,
and the day shall be dark for them.

7^a“The seers shall be ashamed;
the diviners shall be confounded, indeed, they shall all cover their lips then,
for there is no answer from God.”

8^aBut truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the Lord,
and of justice and might,
to declare to Jacob his transgressions,
and to Israel his sin.

9^aNow hear this,
you heads of the house of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel, who abhor justice and pervert all equity, 10^awho build up Zion with bloodshed and Jerusalem with iniquity.

11^aThe heads judge for a bribe;
her priests teach for pay,
and her prophets prophesy for money.

Yet they lean on the Lord and say,
“Is not the Lord among us?
No harm can come upon us.”

12^aTherefore because of you,
Zion shall be plowed like a field,
Jerusalem shall become heaps of ruins,
and the mountain of the temple,
like the bare hills of the forest.

COME, let us go up to His mountain
For the Lord to teach us His ways.
There shall all the nations be gathered,
And we will walk in the Lord's name always.

To the top of the mountain where God's house is,
Exalted above all mountains and hills,
Then on to break down all nations and gather
The substance for the Lord; they are His!

MICAH 4

1^aNow in the latter days, it shall come to pass, that the mountains of the Lord's house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills,
and peoples shall flow to it.

2^aMany nations shall come and say, “Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob;
He will teach us His ways,
and we shall walk in His paths.

For the law shall go forth out of Zion,
and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

3^aHe shall judge between many peoples, and rebuke strong nations that are far off.
They shall beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
neither shall they learn war anymore.

4^aBut everyone shall sit under his vine and under his fig tree,
and no one shall make them afraid;

for the mouth of the Lord of hosts has spoken.
 5For all people walk each in the name of his god, but we will walk in the name of the Lord our God forever and evermore.

6[“]In that day,” says the Lord, “I will assemble the lame, I will gather the outcast and those whom I have afflicted.

7[“]I will make the lame a remnant, and the outcast a strong nation. So the Lord will reign over them in Mount Zion from now on, even forever.

8[“]And you, O tower of the flock, the stronghold of the daughter of Zion, to you shall the former dominion return, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.”

9Why now do you cry aloud? Is there no king in your midst? Has your counselor perished? For pangs have seized you like a woman in labor.

10Be in pain and labor to bring forth, like a travailing woman, O daughter of Zion. For now you shall go forth from the city, you shall dwell in the field, and to Babylon you shall go. There you shall be delivered. There the Lord will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

11Now also many nations have gathered against you, who say, “Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion.”

12But they do not know the thoughts of the Lord, nor do they understand His counsel; for He will gather them like sheaves to the threshing floor.

13[“]Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion; for I will make your horn into iron, I will make your hoofs bronze. You shall beat in pieces many peoples. I will consecrate their grain to the Lord, and their substance to the Lord of the whole earth.”

 But from you a Ruler shall come.
 He shall feed in the Lord’s strength,

 And Your witchcraft shall be cut off,
 All graven images destroyed,
 For when the woman shall travail and bring forth,
 He shall feed the people of the Lord!

when into our land
the Assyrians shall come,
and when he treads in our palaces.

Then against him we shall raise seven shepherds and eight princely men, ⁶who shall make the land of Assyria waste with the sword,
and the land of Nimrod at its entrances.
So shall he deliver us from the Assyrians when he comes into our lands and when he treads within our borders.

⁷Then the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples, like dew from the Lord,
like showers on the grass of the field,
that wait for no man,
nor wait for the sons of men.

⁸And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the beasts of the forest;
like a young lion among flocks of sheep, who if he passes through both treads down and tears in pieces, and none can deliver.

⁹Your hand shall be lifted against your adversaries, and all your enemies shall be cut off.

¹⁰“And it shall come to pass in that day,” says the Lord,

“that I will cut off your horses from your midst, and your chariots I will destroy.

¹¹“And I will cut off your cities, and all your strongholds I will throw down.

¹²I will cut off witchcraft from your hand.
You shall have no soothsayers.

¹³I will also cut off your carved images and your standing images from your midst.
You shall no more worship the work of your hands after this.

¹⁴“I will pluck your wooden images from your midst;
so shall I destroy your cities.

¹⁵And I will execute My vengeance in anger and fury
on the nations that have not heard.”

DO justice, love mercy and humbly walk.
Present this to God rather than calves.
A thousand burnt offerings, though you bring,

With ten thousands of rivers of oil to Him,
Yet do you hoard treasures of wickedness?
Are your rich men full of violence?
Know the Lord shall make you desolate,
For He requires justice, mercy and a humble heart!

MICAH 6

¹Hear now what the Lord says:

²“Arise, plead your case before the mountains.
And let the hills hear your voice.

Hear, O mountains, the Lord’s complaint,
you strong foundations of the earth;
for the Lord has a complaint against His people, and He will contend with Israel.

³“O My people, what have I done to You?
And how have I wearied you? Testify against Me.

⁴“I brought you out of the land of Egypt,
I redeemed you from the house of bondage;
and I sent before you Moses, Aaron and Miriam.

⁵“O My people, remember now what Balak king of Moab counseled, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him, from Shittim to Gilgal. Think, therefore, that you may know the righteousness of the Lord.”

⁶With what shall I come before the Lord, and bow myself before the Most High God?
Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings?

With calves a year old?

⁷Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, or rivers of oil in its ten thousands? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgressions, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

⁸He has shown you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you, but to do justly, to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God?

⁹The Lord's voice cries to the city. Wisdom shall see Your name:

"Hear the rod! Who has appointed it?"

¹⁰Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked; and the short measure that is an abominable thing?

¹¹Shall I consider those with wicked measures and with the bag of deceitful weights, pure?

¹²For the rich men are full of violence, her inhabitants have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

¹³"Therefore I will also make you sick by smiting you, and make you desolate because of your sins. ¹⁴You shall eat, but not be satisfied. Hunger shall be in your midst.

Your casting down shall be before your eyes. None shall deliver you!

You shall carry some away but shall not save them; and those whom you rescue, I will give to the sword.

¹⁵"You shall not reap that which you sow. You shall tread the olives, but the oil shall not anoint you.

You shall make sweet wine, but shall not drink wine.

¹⁶"For the statues of Omri are kept; and you do all the works of Ahab's house; and you walk in their counsels, that I should make you a desolation, and your inhabitants a hissing. Therefore, you shall bear the reproach of My people."

SEE me cast down, see me fall,
 But know I shall arise!
 See me sitting in the dark,
 But the Lord shall be my light!
 I will bear my indignation for my sins,
 For it is but for a time.
 For my confidence is not in man;
 In God's righteousness I shall shine!

MICAH 7

- ¹Woe is me; woe!
 For I am like those who gather summer fruits, like those who glean vintage grapes. There is no cluster to eat, of the first-ripe fruit which My soul desires.
- ²The faithful man has perished from the earth, and there is no one upright among men. They all lie in wait for blood. Every man hunts his brother with a net, ³that they may earnestly do evil with both hands. The prince asks for gift, the judge seeks bribe, and the great man utters his evil desire; so they scheme together.
- ⁴The best of them is like a brier; the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge. The day of your watchman and your punishment comes. Now shall be their perplexity.
- ⁵Do not trust in a friend. Do not put your confidence in a companion. Guard the doors of your mouth from her who lies in your bosom.
- ⁶The son dishonors his father, daughter rises against her mother, daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

A man's enemies are those of his own household.

⁷Therefore I will look to the Lord.
I will wait for the God of my salvation.
My God will hear me.

⁸Do not rejoice over me, my enemy;
when I fall, I will arise.

When I sit in darkness,
the Lord will be a light to me.

⁹I will bear the indignation of the Lord, because I have sinned against Him,
until He pleads my case,
and execute justice for me.
He will bring me forth to the light.
I will see His righteousness.

¹⁰Then she who is my enemy will see it,
and shame will cover her who said to me,
"Where is the Lord your God?"

Now I will behold her with my eyes, and she will be trampled down
just like mud in the streets,

¹¹in the day when your walls are to be built.
In that day the decree shall go far and wide.

¹²In that day they shall come to you from Assyria and from the fortified cities, from the fortress to the River,
from mountain to mountain and sea to sea.

¹³Yet the land shall be desolate because of those who dwell in it, and for the fruit of their deeds.

¹⁴Shepherd Your people, Lord, with Your staff,
the flocks of Your heritage,
who dwell solitarily in a woodland,
in the midst of Carmel.

Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead as in days of old.

¹⁵As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt,
I will show them marvelous wonders.

¹⁶The nations shall see and be ashamed of all their might;
they shall lay their hand on their mouth,
and their ears shall be deaf.

¹⁷They shall lick the dust like a serpent.
They shall crawl from their holes like snakes of the earth.

They shall be afraid of the Lord our God, and fear because of You.

¹⁸Who is a God like You, pardoning iniquity and passing over the transgression of the remnant of His heritage?

He does not retain His anger forever, because in mercy He delights.

¹⁹He will turn again and have compassion on us, and will subdue our iniquities.
You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea.

²⁰You will give truth to Jacob and mercy to Abraham,

which You have sworn to our fathers from
days of old.

9. Come from your hiding place and fear before the Lord of hosts; make Him your refuge and hiding place; He is loving and forgiving, full of grace and delights in mercy.
10. If you surrender to the work of the cross you will see the sins you have sunken in lifted from you and sunken into the depths of the sea.
