

The Book of PSALMS

BY the rivers of waters I am planted;
By rivers of waters I will grow.
By rivers of waters I am planted,
Firmly rooted for I know
Whatever I do shall prosper.
In all that I do, I will prevail;
Whatever I do shall prosper;
Nothing I do will ever fail.

PSALMS 1

¹Blessed is everyone, who rejects ungodly counsel,
who will not follow sinners' path,
who will not sit with or act like the scornful, *@will not walk, will not stay,
will never take the sinner's way;*
²but in God's law they meditate.
Day and night, they live by God's statutes alone;
His word is their delight and God's law has become their firm stone.
Whatever they do shall prosper . . . !
³They will be like a tree planted by rivers of flowing water to remain;
that brings forth fruit in its season.
Their leaves will never wither away,
for they are rooted by the waters,
nourished by God's laws both night and day;
and whatever they do shall prosper.
*@Whatever they do shall prosper,
in all that they do they shall prevail;
whatever they do shall prosper;
nothing they do will ever fail.*
⁴But the ungodly are not so.
They do not have this heritage.
They are like stubble before the wind,
they are tossed and blown away.
⁵They will not be standing in the judgment,
nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
⁶For the Lord knows the way of the righteous;
righteousness is known,
but the way of the ungodly shall perish and be no more.
*@I shall say; can you say?
Whatever I do shall prosper . . . !
In all that I do I shall prevail;
whatever I do shall prosper;
nothing I do will ever fail!*

Leave it to God and you will see:
He who sits in the heavens shall laugh.

PSALMS 2

¹Why do the nations rage,
and the people imagine vain things, ²the kings of the earth and rulers,
take counsel against God?
Why do the kings set themselves against God

and His Anointed, ³and say, "Let us cast their cords from us and break in pieces their bonds."
⁴But He who sits in the heavens shall laugh at them, and hold them in derision!
 Then they will hear Him speak...
⁵He shall speak in His wrath,
 and vex them with His displeasure,
⁶"Yet on My holy hill of Zion I have set My King."
⁷"I will declare the decree that the Lord has said to Me,
 'You are My Son; today I have begotten You.
⁸'Ask of Me and I will give You the nations for Your inheritance, and the utmost parts of the earth for Your possession.
⁹You shall break them with an iron rod, and shall dash them in pieces like the potter's vessel of sod."

 You have relieved me when I was in distress.
 Have mercy on me and hear my prayer,

 and turn my glory into shame?

 the Lord has set apart those who are Godly for Himself.

The Lord will hear me when I call.

⁴That is why I tell you, stand in awe;
 stand in awe and do not sin.

With your own heart commune with Him,
 on your bed where quiet is;
 commune with God and then be still.

Set apart those who are godly, yes!

In the Lord place your trust.

my Lord.

He heard my voice from His temple;
my cry came before Him, yes, He listened;
my cries came even to His ears.

⁷Then the earth shook and trembled;
the foundations of the hills were moved and shaken.

They were shaken, for God was angry,

and in person He came down.

Darkness was underneath His feet.

Lord I will give You praise.

For Your gentleness has made me great.

I did not turn until they were consumed.

³⁹For You have armed me with strength for battle;

those who rose against me, under me You have made them subdued.

⁴⁰You have also given me the necks of my enemies

so that I have destroyed utterly all those who hated me.

⁴¹They cried but there was none to save, even to You, Lord, but no answer to them You gave.

⁴²I beat them, how I beat them, as fine as dust before the wind; I cast them out like dirt in the streets.

⁴³You have delivered me from the contentions of the people;

You have made me head of the nations.

A people I have not known shall serve me. Yes, they shall serve me.

⁴⁴As soon as they hear of me they shall obey. The foreigners submit to me.

Let the God of my salvation be exalted.

⁴⁷It is God who avenges me and subdues the peoples under me.

⁴⁸He delivers me from my enemies.

Above my foes He has lifted me; above all those who rise up against me.

From the violent man, You have delivered me.

⁴⁹Therefore I will give thanks to You, and You only, O Lord.

 even length of days for ever. Amen.

 fruit;
 from among the children of men their children shall be removed.

 imagined mischievous devices,
 which they could not perform.

 backs;

praise!

⁶In my prosperity, I said,
"I will never be moved."

to stand strong and to loom.

Then You hid Your face, and I was troubled, ⁸I cried to You, O Lord,

to the Lord I made my supplication.
⁹"What profit is there in my blood
when I go down to the pit?"

Who will praise You? Will the dust?
Will the dust declare Your truth?

¹⁰Hear, O Lord; O Lord, hear me; hear, O Lord, and have mercy!

Lord be my helper!"

¹¹You have turned my mourning into dancing;
You have put off my sackcloth
and You have girded me with gladness;

it is a new day and I am glad!

*@Joy comes in the morning.
Sun rays dispel the gloom.*

The night of weeping is now gone.*

¹²To the end that my glory may sing praise to

You,
and not be silent, no.
O Lord my God, forever I will give thanks to
You,
for weeping shall not perpetuate beyond the night.

 let the angel of the Lord chase them.

 let the angel of the Lord pursue them.
⁷For without a cause, they have hidden their net for me in a pit
 which for my soul they dug.
⁸Let destruction come upon him suddenly;
 let his net catch himself;
 into his own destruction let him fall.
⁹My soul shall rejoice in the Lord;
 it shall rejoice in His salvation.
¹⁰And my bones shall say, "Lord, who is like
 You,
 who delivers the poor from him who is too strong for him,
 the poor and the needy from him who plun-

11 False witnesses rise up, and accused me of things I did not know about.

clothing.

brother;

I bowed down heavily as one who mourns for his mother.

thanks.

19 Do not let those who are my enemies wrongfully rejoice over me;

nor let those who hate me without a cause
wink with their eye.

20 For they do not speak peace, but they devise matters in deceit against those who are quiet in the land.

21 Against me they have their mouths wide open and they say, "Aha! Aha!
Our eyes have seen it done."

22 You have seen this, O Lord; do not keep silent, do not stand afar.

23 Stir Yourself, awake to my justice, rise to my cause, my Lord, and my God.

24 Judge me, O Lord, vindicate me according to Your righteousness,

and do not let them rejoice over me.

25 Do not let them say in their heart, "Ah, yes, so would we have it be."

Neither let them say, "We have swallowed him up."

26 Bring them to shame and confusion who rejoice at my hurt.

Clothe them with shame and dishonor, who magnify themselves against me.

27 But let them shout for joy and be glad who favor my righteous cause and my name.

²⁷Depart from evil and do good; dwell for evermore.

²⁸The righteous Lord loves justice; He will not forsake the saints.

The saints are preserved forever, but the children of the wicked are cut off.

²⁹The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell forever in it.

³⁰The mouth of the righteous speaks wisdom; justice is on his tongue.

³¹The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps will ever slide, not one.

³²The wicked watches the righteous, and seeks his soul to slay him;

³³the Lord will not leave him in his hands, nor when He judges will He condemn him.

³⁴Wait on the Lord and keep His way. He will exalt you if you wait;

He will exalt you to inherit the land, but the wicked will be cut away, and you shall see it then.

³⁵I have seen the wicked in great power like a green bay tree, he spreads himself out.

³⁶Yet he passed away; look, he is no more. I sought him, but he could not be found.

³⁷Take note of the faultless man; look carefully at the upright and see; that unlike the transgressors the end of that man is peace.

³⁸The transgressors shall together be destroyed;

the destiny of the wicked shall be cut off.

³⁹But from the Lord comes the salvation of the righteous;

in the time of trouble He is their strength.

⁴⁰The Lord shall help and deliver them, He shall deliver them from the wicked; He shall save them because they trust in Him.

PSALMS 44

¹With our ears we have heard, O God; our fathers have told the works You did in their days, in the times of old.
²How You drove out the nations with Your mighty hand; how You afflicted and cast them out and planted us in the land.
³They did not get it by their own sword, nor did their own arm save,

⁷You have saved us from our enemies; we shall push them down, O Lord.
All those who hated us You have put to shame.

KNOW that those who trust in wealth
And those who in riches boast,
Not one can redeem his brother
Nor pay God a ransom for his soul.
Don't be afraid of the rich man,
Or when one is glorified;
His glory will not descend with him
When the rich man dies.

PSALMS 49

¹Hear this, all you people;
all you inhabitants of the world give ear.
²Rich and poor, high and low together,
³my mouth speaks wisdom; will you not hear?
The meditation of my heart shall give understanding.
⁴I will incline my ear to a parable;
I will open deep sayings on a harp.
⁵Why should I fear in the days of evil
when I am surrounded by the iniquity of my foes?
⁶For none of those who trust in wealth or who in abundant riches boast themselves, ⁷can by any means redeem his brother,
nor pay God a ransom for his soul.
⁸For the redemption of their soul is precious,
yet forever it shall cease, ⁹that he should still live forever and no corruption he should see.
¹⁰He sees that wise men die in the same manner as the fool;
so shall the brutish person perish and leave his wealth to others.
¹¹They think within themselves that their houses shall forever be,
and that to all generations their dwelling places shall be.
They call their lands after their own names.
Will they not consider this?
¹²Man being in honor shall not abide.
He will perish just as the beast.
¹³This is the way of the foolish,
and of their heirs who approve their words.
¹⁴Death shall feed on them;

like sheep they are laid into the earth.
The upright shall have dominion over them
when the morning rises;
the grave shall consume their beauty far from their dwelling place of lies.

¹⁵But God shall redeem my soul from the power of the grave;
He shall receive me to Himself.

Amen, amen, amen!

¹⁶So do not be afraid
when someone is made rich,
when the glory of his house is exalted and increased.

¹⁷When he dies he shall take nothing.

With him, his glory will not descend, ¹⁸though he blesses himself while he is alive and had the praises of men.

(For men will praise you when it is well)
but there shall come the night;

¹⁹he shall go to the generations of his fathers;
they shall never see the light.

²⁰Man who is in honor, who is he, if he does not understand?

He is like the beasts that perish.

@There is more to life than house and lands

More to life than lovely hands

More than glory, more than gold

More to life; there is your soul.

 I am God, even your God!”

 “What right have you to declare My laws, or that you should take My covenant in your mouth, ¹⁷seeing you hate instruction with your heart;
 you cast My words behind you?
¹⁸“You consent with the thief,
 and partook of adultery
¹⁹“and give your mouth to evil and your tongue to deceit.
²⁰You sit and speak against your brother;
 you slander your own mother’s son.

²¹Though I have kept silence,
 all these things you have done.
 You thought I was just like you,
 but I will rebuke you.
 I will set them in order before your eyes.
²²“Consider this now, will you?
 You who forget God consider,
 lest I tear you to many pieces and there is none to deliver you.
 Won’t you consider this?
²³“Whoever offers praise glorifies Me,
 and he who orders his way aright,
 him I will show My salvation.”

 by praise I am glorified.*

PRAYER POINTS

- Save me, O Lord, vindicate me and deliver me from my enemies, in the name of Jesus.
- Let every opposition rising up from my place of rest or work, receive angelic fire, in the name of Jesus.
- My Lord, my God, You are my helper and my God; I will rest in You in the midst of my storms. Amen.

OH, that I had wings to fly;
From this windy storm I would run and hide.
Not because of an enemy, or else I would be alright;
but my own friend, counselor and guide.

PSALMS 55

¹Give ear to my prayer O God, do not hide Yourself;
do not hide from my supplications.
²Hear me and give me Your attention.
I moan aloud in my complaint.
³Because of the oppression of the wicked,
because of my enemy's voice.
They cast iniquity on me;
in their wrath they hate me.
⁴My heart is painning me severely inside me;
on me terrors of death have come.
⁵On me fearfulness and trembling is come.
By horrors I am overwhelmed.
⁶I would fly away like the dove
if only I had wings.
"Oh, that I had wings to fly;
from this windy storm I would run and hide.
⁷Then I would wander far away and be at rest;
I would remain in the wilderness.
⁸"I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest;
if only I had wings!"
⁹Destroy, O Lord, destroy them;
divide their very tongues.
I have seen their violence;
in the city their strife is done.
¹⁰Day and night they go about on the city walls;
mischief and sorrow are in her midst.
Wickedness is in her midst.
¹¹Deceit and guile never depart from her streets.
Destroy, O Lord, destroy.
¹²If it was an enemy who reproached me I could bear it;
or if it was him who hated me, who magnified himself against me;
then I would not hurt so much inside;
I would have gone someplace to hide.
¹³But it was my brother, my equal and my guide,
my own companion here with me.
¹⁴Together we took counsel sweet,
and walked to God's house in company.
This is so painful for me.
¹⁵Let death seize on them.
Let them go down alive quickly into hell,
for wickedness is in their dwelling and in their midst as well.
¹⁶As for me, I will call on God's name
knowing that He will save me.
¹⁷Evening, morning and noon I will pray;
I will cry aloud, and He will hear me.
¹⁸He has delivered my soul in peace
from the raging battle that does not cease.
For many were against me,

¹⁹but Lord, God, You shall hear me.
God will hear and afflict them,
even He who abides of old,
because they have not changed;
therefore the fear of God they do not hold.

²⁰Against such as are at peace with him
he has put forth his hands.

He has broken his covenant against a brother and a friend,
one who was at peace with him.

²¹His words were smoother than butter,
but war was in his heart.

His words were softer than oil,
yet they were swords that were drawn.

But as for me . . .

²²Cast your burdens, you all;
cast them on the Lord
and He will sustain you.
He will never allow the righteous to be moved.

²³You shall bring them down,
O God, into the pit of destruction.

Bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days.

But as for me...

yes this I will do,
as for me, I will trust in You.

Break their teeth, Lord, break the teeth of wickedness.

You sons of men; do you judge uprightly?

¹⁰The kings of Tarshish shall bring Him presents, and also the kings of the islands.

The kings of Sheba and Seba will offer gifts; ¹¹yes, before Him all kings shall fall.

Give the king Your judgments, and nations shall serve Him, one and all.

¹²For He will deliver the needy when he cries, also the poor and those with no helper at all.

¹³He will spare the poor and the needy, and will save their needy souls;

¹⁴He will redeem their life from deceit and violence;

their blood shall be precious in His sight.

¹⁵He shall live and to Him shall be given gold from Sheba; it shall come His way.

They shall pray for Him continually and daily shall He be praised.

¹⁶There will be an abundance of grain on the mountain tops.

Its fruit shall shake like Lebanon.

Those of the city shall flourish just like the grass of the earth.

¹⁷His name shall endure forever.

It shall continue as long as the sun.

Men shall be blessed in his blessings, and nations shall call him blessed.

¹⁸Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who only does wondrous things!

¹⁹Blessed be His glorious name forever; with His glory let the whole earth be filled.

The whole earth shall be filled with Your glory.

The entire earth shall be filled with Your praise.

*Give the king Your judgment,
and his life shall be filled with Your ways.*

Amen, amen; then shall all the people rejoice.*

AS a dream when one awakes,
So shall it be when You awake;
You will despise their image,
Cast the ungodly man away!
You will revive me with Your counsel,
Then receive me to glory afterwards.
Whom have I in heaven
Or on earth, Lord, besides You?

PSALMS 73

- ¹Truly God is good to Israel,
to such as are of a pure and clean heart.
²But as for me, my feet almost stumbled;
my steps nearly slipped,
³for I was envious of the foolish, when I saw the wicked prosperous.
⁴There is no pain in their death, but rather their strength is firm.
⁵They are not in trouble like others,
nor like other men are they plagued, ⁶therefore violence covers them as a garment and pride adorns them like a chain.

- ⁷Their eyes bulge with fatness;
they have more than the heart could wish.
⁸They are corrupt; their speech is lofty;
concerning oppression, they speak wickedly.
⁹They set their mouth against the heavens;
their tongue walks through all the earth.
¹⁰Therefore, his people return;
to them the waters of a full cup are wrung out.
¹¹They say, "How does God know?
In the Most High is there any knowledge?"
¹²Behold these are the ungodly who prosper in the world and increase in riches.
¹³I said that certainly, I have cleansed my heart in vain,
and washed my hands in innocence.
¹⁴All day long I have been plagued;
every morning I have been chastened.
¹⁵If I said, "I will speak about it,"
the generation of Your children I would offend.
¹⁶When I thought to know this,
it was too painful; oh, how it pained, ¹⁷until I entered God's sanctuary;
then I understood their end.
¹⁸Surely You set them in slippery places;
You cast them down to destruction.
¹⁹How are they brought into desolation;
as in a moment, suddenly, they are utterly consumed with terrors.
²⁰As in a dream when one awakes
so shall it be when You awake;
You shall despise their image and cast the wicked man away.
²¹Therefore my heart was grieved and remorseful;
I was pricked within.
²²So foolish was I and ignorant;
I was like a beast before You.
²³Nevertheless, I am with You continually;
in Your right hand I have been held.
²⁴You will guide me with Your counsel, and receive me into glory afterwards.
²⁵Whom have I in heaven but You,
there is no one on earth I desire before You.
²⁶Though my flesh and heart may fail me,
God is the strength of my heart,
and my forever portion.
Lord, You are the strength of my heart and my portion forever.
²⁷Behold, those who are far from You shall perish, shall be destroyed and fade away;
You will destroy all those who leave You for prostitution.
²⁸But I will draw near to God, for it is good.
I have put my trust in the Lord God that I may declare all Your works.
*@It is good for me to draw near to God;
to draw near to God it is good;
forsake wickedness and bow down in fear,
for it is good, so good to draw near.*

- Jesus, You are the truth; help me never to be distracted from my vision of You. Amen.

THE Lord is my King of old,
Working salvation in the midst of the earth.
Lord, do not cast off the soul of Your turtledove,
Nor the sheep of Your pasture, the one that You love.
For the Lord is the King of old;
His worth is much more than gold;
He is working salvation in the midst of the earth.

PSALMS 74

- 1 O God, why have You cast us off forever? Why do we face Your smoking anger? Against the sheep of Your pasture why does Your anger smoke?
- 2 Remember Your people whom You have purchased of old, which You have redeemed to be the rod of Your inheritance; remember Mt. Zion, the land in which You dwell.
- 3 To these perpetual ruins, Lord, direct Your steps; the enemy has done wickedly in the sanctuary of Your presence.
- 4 In the midst of Your congregation Your enemies roar; they set up their banners for signs.
- 5 A person would become famous by lifting axes among the thick trees.

6 But now they break down the carved work at once with hammers and axes.

7 They set fire to Your sanctuary; the dwelling place of Your name they have defiled by casting it down to the ground.

8 They said in their hearts, "Let us destroy them altogether."

They have burnt up all the synagogues of God in the land.

9 We do not see our signs, and there are no prophets around; nor are there among us any to say how long it shall be.

10 O God, how long will the reproach of the adversary be?

Will Your name be blasphemed forever by the enemy?

11 Why withdraw Your hand, O Lord?

Why withdraw Your right hand?

Withdraw it from Your bosom and destroy them.

12 Know that even from old, God is my King. He works salvation in the midst of the earth.

He breaks the heads of serpents in the waters.

13 By Your great strength You divided the sea; You broke the heads of serpents in the seas.

14 You break the heads of leviathan in pieces, and to the people in the wilderness You gave him for meat.

15 The floods and the fountains You congealed. You dried up mighty rivers.

16 The days and the nights are both Yours; You prepared the light and the sun.

17 You set all the borders of the earth;

You have also made summer and winter, O Lord.

18 Remember that the enemy has reproached, and that a foolish people have blasphemed Your name.

19 Do not deliver the life of Your turtledove to the multitude of wicked men.

Do not forget the congregation of the poor forever.

20 Have respect to the covenant, for the dark places of the earth are full of cruel men.

21 Do not allow the poor and oppressed to be ashamed;

let the poor and needy praise Your name.

22 Arise, O God, and defend Your own cause; remember how the foolish daily reproach You, O Lord.

23 Do not forget Your enemy's voice, the tumult that increasingly rises, of those who rise up against You.

O Lord, arise.

Your wondrous works declare it.
I will sing Your praise
And give thanks to God Almighty.

PSALMS 75

²When I shall receive the congregation, I will judge uprightly.
³The earth and its inhabitants are dissolved. I will set up the pillars of it.
⁴'I said to the fools, 'Do not act foolishly.'
 I said to the wicked, 'Do not lift up your horn.'
⁵'Do not lift up your horn on high, nor with a stiff neck speak.'
⁶Promotion does not come from the south, nor from the west, nor from the east,
⁷but God is the Judge; He puts down one and sets up another.
⁸For in the Lord's hand, yes, in His hand there is a cup; in the cup the wine is red; it is full of mixture to be poured out. The dregs are for all the wicked of the earth to drain and to drink down.
⁹I will declare forever, and praises I will sing, praises to God, to the God of Jacob, who has poured the mixture out.

¹⁰'All the horns of the wicked I will cut off, but the horns of the righteous I will exalt.'
*Lord Your name is near,
Your wondrous works declare it.*

- We will wait upon You Lord, remember Your faithful believers and elevate them today, in the name of Jesus.
- Merciful Father, let the spirit of urgency trumpet the alarm to the hearts of the wicked, "Awake! Quickly repent and escape the pouring out of God's wrath!" Amen.

YOU are more glorious than the mountains of prey;
Your name is great in Israel.
You are more excellent, hear me say;
You will arise to judgment.

PSALMS 76

¹In Judah, God is known; in Israel His name is great.
²Salem is His tabernacle, and Zion is His home: His dwelling place.
³He breaks the arrows of the bow, He breaks the shield, the sword, and He breaks the battle itself.
⁴You are more glorious and excellent than the mountains of prey.
⁵The stouthearted are plundered; they have slept their sleep. None of the men of might have found their hands.
⁶At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob, even of You, both the chariot and the horse are cast into a deep sleep, ⁷for You, even You, O Lord, are to be feared. Who may stand in Your sight when You are angry?
⁸From heaven You caused judgment to be heard; the earth feared and was still,
⁹when to judgment God arose to save the meek of the earth.
¹⁰Surely the wrath of men shall praise You,

and the remainder of wrath You will restrain.

¹¹Vow and pay your vows to the Lord your God; He is near.

Let all those who are all around Him bring presents to Him who deserves to be feared.

THE clouds poured out water;
The skies sent out a sound;
Your arrows went out abroad;
The voice of Your thunder, oh, it was loud,
It vibrated the heavens;
Your lightning lighted the world.
The earth trembled and it shook.
The sea and great waters swirled.

PSALMS 77

¹I cried to God with my voice
and He listened to me,
even to God with my voice
and He listened to me.

²In the day of trouble I sought Him;
in the night my sore continued to run;
it ran all night without ceasing,
and my soul refused comfort.

³I remembered God and was troubled;
I complained and my spirit was overwhelmed.

⁴You held my eyes awake;
I was so troubled that I could not speak.

⁵I have considered the days of old,
the years of ancient times.

⁶I recall my songs in the night;
I commune with my own heart;
My spirit searched with diligence.

⁷Will the Lord cast off forever?

Will He no longer be favorable?

⁸Are His mercies completely gone forever?

Shall His promise fail forevermore?

⁹Has God forgotten to be gracious?

Has His anger shut up mercy's door?

¹⁰And I said, "This is my infirmity, but I will remember all the years of the right hand of the Most High";

¹¹I will remember the works of the Lord;
I will remember His wonders of old.

¹²I will meditate on all Your works, and talk of Your doings also.

¹³Your way is in the sanctuary, O God!

Who is as great as our God is great?

¹⁴You are the God who does wonders;

You have declared Your strength among all the people.

¹⁵With Your arm You redeemed Your people:
Joseph's and Jacob's sons.

The waters saw You, O God,

¹⁶the waters saw and were afraid.

The depths were also troubled.

¹⁷The clouds poured out water.

The skies sent out a sound.

Your arrows went out abroad.

¹⁸The voice of Your thunder, it was loud,
it vibrated the heavens.

The lightning lighted the world.

The earth trembled and shook,
and the sea began to swirl.

¹⁹Your way is in the sea;

and Your path in the great waters;

Your footsteps are not known;

none can predict or follow You.

²⁰You led Your people;

You led them just like a flock

by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

@I will remember You, my rock.

This is my infirmity

but I will remember all Your works,

I will remember.

- Mighty God, I call to remembrance the former days when I was refreshed from Your throne and it gives me confidence for my current situation. Amen.

LET today and tomorrow
Be guided by the God of your past;
Tell it to your children
So they will not forsake His laws.
Show forth the praises of the Lord
To the generations to come.
They will find confidence and purpose
In where He has brought you from.

PSALMS 78

¹Give ear to my law, O my people;
incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
²I will open my mouth in a parable;
I will utter dark sayings of old,
³which we have heard and known and our fathers have told us of.
⁴From their children we will not hide them.
We will proclaim them with our mouth, showing the praises of the Lord
to the generations to come,
His strength and His wonderful works,
all the things that He has done.
⁵He has established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel
that He has commanded our fathers to make known to our children.
⁶That the generation to come might know of it,
even the children yet to be born.
They shall in turn arise and declare them to their children;
⁷that they may set their hope in God and not forget His works but keep His commandments ⁸and might not be as their fathers, stubborn and rebellious,
a generation who did not prepare their hearts,
whose spirit in God was not steadfast.
⁹The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows, turned back on the day of battle.
¹⁰They did not keep God's covenants.
They refused to walk in His laws.
¹¹They forgot the works He had shown them,
and the wonders He performed, ¹²and the marvelous things He did in the sight of their fathers,

in the land of Egypt and in the fields of Zoan.
¹³He divided the seas and made them pass through,
and made the waters stand as a heap.
¹⁴He led them with a cloud in the daytime,
and with the light of fire all night.
¹⁵He split the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.
¹⁶He brought streams out of the rock;
like rivers He made the waters flow.
¹⁷But they provoked the Most High in the wilderness;
they sinned against Him yet more and more.
¹⁸They tempted God in their hearts,
when for their own lust they asked for meat.
¹⁹And against God they also spoke, saying, "Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?
In this long and dreary dark?
²⁰He struck the rocks and waters gushed out; the streams overflowed
now can He give bread and flesh?" they asked.
²¹The Lord heard and He was so angry against Jacob that He lit a fire;
His anger came also against Israel;
²²for they did not believe the Lord,
neither did they trust in His salvation ²³though He sent manna from above.
When He opened the doors of heaven,
²⁴and rained heaven's food on His love, ²⁵man ate the food of angels;
they had their fill of His meat.
²⁶By His power He sent a south wind,
in the heavens He stirred wind from the east.
²⁷He rained flesh upon them as dust,
and feathered fowls like sea sand.
²⁸All around their dwelling place it fell,
and in the midst of their camp.
²⁹They did eat to their fill.
He gave them their own desire.
³⁰They were not estranged from their lust,
but while they ate of the fat,
and the meat was still in their mouths,
³¹the wrath of God came on them.
The chosen men of Israel He smote,
and slew the fattest ones among them.
³²And yet they sinned still,
and did not believe His wondrous works.
³³Therefore with vanity He consumed their days,
and in trouble He consumed their years.
³⁴When He slew them, then they sought Him and returned and enquired after Him early in great fear.
³⁵They remembered that God was their rock and the Most High, their Redeemer and Lord.
³⁶They flattered Him with their mouths
but their hearts were far, oh, so far.
They flattered Him with their mouths
but with their tongues they lied.
³⁷They were not steadfast in covenant;
their hearts were not right.
³⁸But, being full of compassion,

He forgave all their sins and did not destroy them.
Many times He turned from His anger and did not stir up all His wrath.

³⁹For He remembered they were but flesh, just as a wind that passes away and does not return again.

⁴⁰How often they provoked Him in the wilderness, and in the desert grieve His heart.

⁴¹They turned back and tempted God; the Holy One of Israel, they limited.

⁴²They did not remember His hand, nor the day when from the enemy He delivered them.

⁴³How He performed His signs in Egypt, and in the field of Zoan did wonders.

⁴⁴How He turned their rivers into blood and their waters that no one could drink.

⁴⁵Swarms of flies devoured them; the frogs He sent destroyed them.

⁴⁶Caterpillar, locust and hail consumed their increase, and the locust consumed their work.

⁴⁷He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with frost.

⁴⁸He gave their cattle to the hail and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.

⁴⁹He cast on them His fierce anger, His indignation, trouble and wrath, by sending evil angels among them.

⁵⁰He made a way for His anger; He did not spare their souls from death, but gave their life over to the plagues.

⁵¹The firstborn of Egypt He smote, the chief of the strength of Ham's tabernacle, ⁵²but like sheep He brought His own people forth.

He guided His people in the wilderness just like a flock.

⁵³He led them to safety so that they feared not; but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

⁵⁴And He brought them to His sanctuary, to this mountain which His right hand had purchased;

yes, this their eye came to see.

⁵⁵He cast out the nations also before them, and distributed to them an inheritance by measure, and made all Israel to dwell in their own houses.

⁵⁶Yet they tempted and provoked the Most High God; His testimonies they did not keep.

⁵⁷Unfaithful like their fathers, they turned back;

and they turned aside like a bow of deceit.

⁵⁸With their high places they provoked Him. With their carved images they moved Him to jealousy.

⁵⁹When God heard this, He was angry; He greatly abhorred Israel, ⁶⁰so that He forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, and the tent which He placed among men.

⁶¹He delivered His strength into captivity, and His glory into the enemy's hand.

⁶²He gave His people also to the sword. With His inheritance He was very angry.

⁶³His fire consumed their young men, and their virgins were not given to marriages.

⁶⁴The priests fell by the sword, and their widows did not lament.

⁶⁵The Lord awakened as if from sleep, and shouted like a mighty man emboldened by wine.

⁶⁶He smote the enemies in their rear parts; He made them a perpetual reproach.

⁶⁷He refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and the tribe of Ephraim He did not choose.

⁶⁸Instead He chose the tribe of Judah, and Mount Zion, which He loved.

⁶⁹And He built His sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which He has established forever.

⁷⁰He chose David also His servant, and from the sheepfolds He took him

⁷¹from following the ewes great with young. He brought him to feed Jacob and Israel.

⁷²So his servant David fed them according to the integrity of his heart, and he guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

¹O God, the nations have come up;
 into Your inheritance they have come.
 They have defiled Your holy temple,
 and laid Jerusalem to the ground.
²The dead bodies of Your servants
 they have given to be meat to the birds;
 they have given the flesh of Your saints to wild animals.
³Their blood is shed like water all around Jerusalem;
 and there was none to bury them.
⁴We have become a reproach to our neighbors;
 a scorn and derision to people everywhere.

 praise.

to be feared
and to be held in reverence by all people everywhere.
⁸O Lord of hosts, who is a strong Lord compared to You?

 Or to Your faithfulness which surrounds You?
 9 You still the waves that rise; You rule the raging seas.
 10 As one who is slain, You have broken Rahab in pieces.
 With Your strong arm, You scatter Your enemies.
 11 The heavens and the earth are Yours, the world and its fullness You founded them all.
 12 You created both north and south;
 Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in Your name,
 13 Your arm is mighty; Your hand is very strong;
 Your right hand is high and mighty, O God.
 14 Your throne is established on justice and judgment;
 mercy and truth go before Your face.
 15 Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound;
 they shall walk in the light of Your countenance;
 16 in Your name they shall rejoice all day;
 in Your righteousness they will be exalted, 17 You are the glory of their strength;
 our horn shall be exalted in Your favor.
 18 For the Lord is our defense; the Holy One of Israel is our King.
 19 You have spoken in visions to Your Holy One.
 You said, "I have laid help on a mighty one; I have exalted one who from the people I chose."
 20 I found David my servant; with My holy oil I anointed him.
 21 With him My hand shall be established;
 My arm shall strengthen him.
 22 The enemy shall not deceive him, nor the wicked afflict him.
 23 I will trample down his foes before his face and plague them who hate him.
 24 "In My name his horn shall be exalted;
 with him My faithfulness and mercy shall be."
 25 I will set his right hand in the rivers and his hand also in the sea.
 26 He shall cry to Me, "You are my Father, my God, the Rock of my salvation!"
 27 I will make him My firstborn, higher than all kings of the earth;
 28 I will keep My mercy for him forever, with him My covenant is steadfast.
 29 "I will make his descendants to endure forever, and his throne as the days of the heavens."
 30 But if his children forsake My law, and do not walk in My judgments, 31 if they break My statutes, and do not keep My commandments,
 32 with the rod I will visit their transgressions and with stripes I will reward them.
 33 But My loving-kindness I will not utterly take away, nor from him will I allow My faithfulness to fail.

34 "I will not break My covenant, nor change the commitment of My lips;
 35 I have sworn by My holiness once; I will not lie to David.
 36 His descendants shall endure forever, and his throne as the sun before Me.
 37 It shall be established as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven!"
 38 But You have cast off and abhorred, being angry with Your anointed.
 39 You have nullified the covenant of your servant; You have cast his crown to the ground and profaned it.
 40 You have broken down all his hedges; you have brought his strongholds to ruin.
 41 He is a reproach to his neighbors; all who pass by the way plunder him.
 42 You have set up the right hand of his adversary, and made his enemies rejoice.
 43 You have turned the edge of his sword and have not made him stand in the battle.
 44 You have made his glory to cease, and cast his throne down to the ground;
 45 You have covered him with shame and shortened the days of his youthfulness.
 46 How long, Lord? Will You hide forever? Shall Your wrath burn like fire?
 47 Have You made all men in vain? My time is very short, remember.
 48 What man is he who lives who shall never see death?
 Shall he deliver his life from the clutches of the grave?
 49 Where is Your loving kindness of old, which You swore to David in Your truth?
 50 Remember the reproach of Your servant;
 that I bear in my bosom;
 the reproach of all the mighty people;
 51 with which Your enemies reproached, O Lord;
 with which they reproached the footsteps of Your anointed.
 52 Blessed be Your name for evermore! Amen.

⁵that the blessings of the chosen I may see; that I may rejoice in the gladness of Your nation and I may glory with Your inheritance.
⁶With our fathers we have sinned; we have committed iniquity; we have done wickedly.
⁷Our fathers did not understand the wonders of Egypt; they did not remember God's many mercies, but provoked Him at the sea, the Red Sea.
⁸Nevertheless, He saved them for His own name's sake, that He might make His mighty power known.
⁹He rebuked the Red Sea and it dried up; so He led them through the depths as through the wilderness.
¹⁰He saved them from the hand of those who hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy, again and again.
¹¹The waters covered their enemies. There was not one of them left to be seen.
¹²They sang praises for they believed His words, ¹³but they soon forgot His works. On His counsel they no longer waited, ¹⁴but in the desert they tested their God, and lusted exceedingly in the wilderness.
¹⁵He gave them their request, but He sent leanness into their soul.
¹⁶Then they envied Moses in the camp, and also Aaron, the saint of the Lord.
¹⁷And the earth opened and swallowed up Dathan; the company of Abiram it covered.
¹⁸In their company was a fire kindled and the flame burned up the wicked.
¹⁹Then they made a calf in Horeb and worshipped the molten image.
²⁰In this way they change their glory into the similitude of an ass that eats grass.
²¹They forgot God their Savior who in Egypt had done great things.
²²Wondrous works in the land of Ham He did, and awesome things by the Red Sea.
²³Therefore He said that He would destroy them, had not Moses stood in the gap before Him to turn His wrath away, lest He should destroy them.

²⁴Yes, they despised the pleasant land; they did not believe His word, ²⁵but in their tents they murmured and did not heed the voice of the Lord.
²⁶He lifted up His hand against them, therefore, to overthrow them in the wilderness, ²⁷to overthrow their descendants among the nations and to scatter them in the lands.
²⁸Then to Baalpeor they joined themselves; they ate the sacrifices made to the dead.
²⁹They provoked Him to anger by the things they invented, and so the plague broke in on them.
³⁰Then stood up Phinehas and executed judgment, and the plague stopped and was no more,
³¹and it was accounted to him for righteousness, to all generations forevermore.
³²They angered Him at the water of strife so that it went wrong with Moses for their sake, ³³because they provoked his spirit so that he spoke unadvisedly with his lips.
³⁴They did not destroy the nations then, concerning whom God had commanded them, ³⁵but were mingled among the people and learned their works and actions.
³⁶They served their idols which became a snare to them.
³⁷They sacrificed their sons and daughters to demons.
³⁸They shed innocent blood; the blood of their daughters and sons whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan, and the land was polluted with blood.
³⁹So were they defiled with their own works, and went prostituting after their own inventions.
⁴⁰Therefore the Lord's wrath was kindled against His people in the land, so that He abhorred His own inheritance.
⁴¹He gave them into the people's hands, and they were hated by those who ruled over them.
⁴²Their enemies oppressed them also; under their hand they were brought into subjection.
⁴³Many times He delivered them; yes, He made them strong, but for their counsel they provoked the Lord, and for their iniquities they were brought low.
⁴⁴Nevertheless, He regarded their affliction when He heard the voice of their cry;
⁴⁵and He remembered His covenant to them, and relented according to His many mercies.
⁴⁶He made them also to be pitied by all those who carried them into captivity.
⁴⁷Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the nations, to give thanks to Your Holy name and to triumph in Your praise.
⁴⁸Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.

And let all the people say,
“Amen, praise the Lord, amen!”

And fountains come from flint.

PSALMS 114

- ¹When Israel went out of Egypt, from a people of strange language came the house of Jacob;

increase you yet more and more,
both you and your children.

He has created doors.

by whom heaven and earth were made.

to Your name be all the praise!

120My flesh trembles in fear of You; Your judgments terrify me.

Your statutes, Your precepts and Your ways I will keep!

CANNOT forget Jerusalem and we cannot forget our Lord, Though by sin in bondage brought far; Nor can we sing the Lord's song To humor our captors here, by the rivers of Babylon.

PSALMS 137

¹By the rivers of Babylon,
 there we sat down, yeah, on its banks,
 and in sorrow we wept
 when we remembered Zion.
²On the willows we hung our harps.
 In the midst of it they were placed.
³Our captors required of us a song.
 Those who took us away captives, said,

“Sing us one of Zion’s songs!”
 Those who afflicted us required amusement,
 “Sing us one of Zion’s songs!”
⁴How can we sing the Lord’s song here in a foreign land?
⁵If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her gifting.
⁶If I do not remember you,
 let my mouth forget her singing.
 Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth,
 O Jerusalem, if I do not prefer you above the chief of my joy.
⁷O Lord, remember the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem, who cried, “Destroy it! Destroy it!”
 To the foundations let it be routed!”
⁸O daughter of Babylon who is to be destroyed, happy shall the person be, who rewards you!
That is the only song I have.
 Happy shall he be who rewards you as you have treated us;
⁹happy shall he be who rewards you, and who dashes your little ones against the rocks.
©This is the song I will sing on these shores, for how can I sing the Lord’s song in this strange land?

before the gods I will sing praise.

Toward His holy temple

but at a distance He knows the proud.

⁷Though I walk in the midst of trouble,

Your words will not be denied;

Your right hand will save me from all my enemies;

by Your stretched-forth hand I will be revived.

⁸The Lord will perfect that which concerns me:

all the issues of my soul.

*@All my dreams and my cares,
my concerns and my fears,*

perfected; perfectly resolved in my favor.

O Lord: Your mercy endures forever;
forsake not the work of Your own hands.

You will perfect that which concerns me,

@and on these words I stand.

*I will praise You with my whole heart,
for You remain the same.*

above Your marvelous name.*

I am fearfully and wonderfully made.

PSALMS 139

²You know when I sit down and when I rise;
You understand my thoughts from a distance.

³You surround my paths and my lying down;
You are acquainted with all my ways.

⁴There is not a hidden word on my tongue;
Lord, You know it altogether;
by You they are all known.

⁵You have enclosed me from behind and in front.

You have laid Your hand upon me, my Lord.

⁶Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
it is so high I cannot attain.

⁷Where shall I go, where shall I flee from Your presence, Lord, and from Your Spirit? Tell me!

⁸If I ascend into heaven, Lord, You are there.
If I make my bed in hell, behold, You are there.

and make the utmost parts of the sea my dwelling place,

¹⁰even there Your hand shall lead me;

Your right hand shall enfold me in Your hold.

¹¹If I say, "Surely darkness covers me, blocks

when I was made in secret, Lord, You knew.
When I was carefully put together in the lowest parts of the earth.

¹⁶My substance, Lord, Your eyes saw.
Though unformed and not yet perfected.

You wrote all my members in Your book.
They were fashioned to continue before they existed.

17O God, how precious are Your thoughts to me!

How great a sum their number is!

18If I should count them, they are more than the sand by the seas when summed.

I am still with You when I awake.

19Surely You will slay the wicked, O God!
Depart from me you bloodthirsty men, stay away.

20They speak against You wickedly to their shame;

Your enemies take Your name in vain.

21Do I not hate them, Lord, who hate You?
Am I not grieved with those who rise up against You?

22With perfect hatred I hate them!
I count them my enemies, not my friends.

23Search me, O God, and know my heart;
try me, O Lord, and know my thoughts;

24see if there is any wicked way with me.
Lead me in the way that is everlasting.
