

THE REVELATION

of Jesus Christ

THE Alpha and Omega,
Oh, what a glorious sight.
Visions of glory, awesome and holy,
Behold His face... it was as flames of fire.
He who was dead and is alive again,
Who now holds the keys of death and Hell,
Yes, and as if dead, at His feet I fell.
I was awed and amazed, but He said to me,
"Write."
I did, but oh, what a glorious sight.

REVELATION 1

¹The Revelation of Jesus Christ, given Him by God, to show to His servants things which must shortly come to pass. And He sent and signified it by His angel to His servant John, ²who bore record to the word of God, and to the testimony of Jesus Christ and of all the things that he saw. ³Blessed is he who reads, and those who hear the words of this prophecy and keep those things which are written in it, for the time is near. ⁴John, to the seven churches which are in Asia: grace be to you and peace from Him who is and who was, and who is to come, and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne, ⁵and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the first begotten from the dead and the ruler of all the earth's kings. To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood, ⁶and has made us kings and priests to His Father God. To Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. ⁷Behold, He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him; and all families of the earth will wail because of Him. Even so. Amen. ⁸"I am the Alpha, the Omega, the Beginning and the End," says the Lord, "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty." ⁹I, John, who am also your brother and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Christ Jesus, was on the island that is called Patmos, for the word of God and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

¹⁰I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a great sound as the blast of a trumpet, ¹¹saying, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last."

Write what you see in a book, and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia, to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamos, to Thyatira, to Philadelphia, to Sardis, and to Laodicea."

¹²Then I turned to see the voice that spoke with me, and when I turned I saw the seven golden candlesticks.

¹³And in the midst of the seven golden candlestands was One like the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the feet and girded with a golden girdle about the chest.

¹⁴His head and His hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and His eyes were like a flame of fire.

¹⁵His feet were like fine bronze, as if they were refined in a furnace, and His voice had the sound of many waters.

¹⁶He had seven stars in His right hand. Out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword.

His countenance was like the sun shining in its strength and brilliance.

¹⁷And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead.

But He laid His right hand on me, saying to me,

"Do not fear; I am the First and the Last."

¹⁸I am He who lives and was dead, and behold I am alive for evermore.

And I have the keys of Hades and of Death.

¹⁹Write the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which hereafter shall be.

²⁰"The mystery of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks.

The stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven candlestands which you saw are the seven churches."

To every church: He knows your works; For your faith and love, He will give to you the morning star!

- 4^cNevertheless, I have this thing against you, that you have left your first love.
- 5^cRemember therefore from where you have fallen; repent and do your first works, or else I will come to you quickly, and remove your candlestand from its place, unless you repent.
- 6^cBut you have this to your credit, you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans which I also hate.

To him who overcomes I will give to eat from the tree of life which is in the midst of God’s Paradise.’

8^{And to the angel of the church of Smyrna write:}

10^{‘Do not fear any of those things which you are going to suffer.}

Behold the devil will cast some of you in prison, that you may be tested,

12^{And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write:}

And you hold fast My name and have not denied the faith, even in those days where Antipas was My faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwells.

14^{‘‘But, I have a few things against you, because you have in your presence, those who hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit fornication.}

15^{And you also have among you, those who hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.}

16^{Repent, or else I will come to you quickly and will fight against them with the sword of My mouth.}

17^{‘‘He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give some of the hidden manna to eat; and I will give him a white stone and on the stone a new name written, which no one knows except he who receives it.’} your patience and your faith; and for your works the last are more than the first.

20^{Nevertheless, I have a few things against you, because you allow that woman Jezebel who calls herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication and eat things sacrificed to idols.}

21^{I have given her time to repent of her fornication, and she has repented not.}

22^{‘‘Behold I will cast her into a bed, and also those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of their deeds.}

23^{I will kill her children with death, and all the churches shall know that I am He who searches the minds and hearts.}

And I will give to each one of you according to your works.

25^{‘‘But that which you already have, hold steadfastly.}

26^{And he who overcomes and keeps My works to the end,} to him will I give power over the nations;

27^{he shall rule them with a rod of iron;}

they will be dashed to pieces just like a potter’s vessel as I have received of My Father;

I will vomit you out of My mouth.

17Because you say, “I am rich and am increased in goods, and have need of nothing,” and you do not know that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind and naked.

And on the seats I saw twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white robes, and on their heads they had crowns of gold.

⁵And lightning, thunder and voices proceeded from the throne.

And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

IT was the Lamb who was slain who stood, Who was worthy to take the book when none other could.

Sing Him a new song; we are redeemed by His blood.

It was the Lamb who was slain who stood.

Who before God the Father has made us kings and priests;

It is the Lamb who was slain, yes He!

REVELATION 5

¹And I saw in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne a book that had writing inside and on the back and was sealed with seven seals.

²Then I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice,

“Who is worthy to open the book and to loose its seals?”

³And no man in heaven, nor on earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, or even to look at it.

⁴And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, or to look at it.

⁵Then one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep, oh, weep not. See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed, to open the book and to loose the seven seals thereof.”

⁶And I looked, and there in the midst of the throne of God and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as if it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth.

⁷Then He came and took the book out of the right hand of Him who sat on the throne.

⁸And when He had taken the book, the four living creatures and twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each having harps and golden vials full of incense, which were the prayers of the saints.

⁹And they sang a new song, saying: “You are able to take the book and to open its seals, for You were slain, and by Your blood You have redeemed us to God, out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation.

¹⁰And have made us kings and priests to God, and we shall reign with You on the earth. You are able to take the book and to open its seals!”

¹¹Then I looked and I heard the voice of many angels all around the throne, and the living creatures and the elders, and their number was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands, ¹²saying with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and riches and wisdom, and honor and strength and glory and blessings!

Jesus, to You belong, power, riches, wisdom, strength, honor, glory and blessings!

Worthy is the Lamb who was slain.”

¹³And every creature which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, I heard say in harmony:

“Blessing and honor and glory and power be to Him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb forever and ever!”

¹⁴“Amen, amen!” I heard the four living creatures say.

And the twenty-four elders fell down at His feet, and worshipped Him who lives forever and ever.

I SAW peace taken from the earth as the seals were opened;

I saw one on a black horse, he held a pair of scales.

I heard the voice of the martyrs crying to God, and, yes, I saw Death and Hell.

I saw the stars fall from heaven;

I saw the moon turn to blood;

Then I saw all the great men flee to the mountain;

“Fall upon us,” is what they said.

REVELATION 6

¹And I saw the Lamb open one of the seals and I heard one of the four living creatures saying with a voice sounding like thunder, “Come and see.”

²And I looked and saw, a white horse. He who sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given to him.

And he went forth conquering and to conquer.

³And when He had opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, “Come and see.”

⁴And there went out another horse, fiery red.

And power was given to the one who sat on it to take peace from the earth, and that men should kill one another.

And there was given to him a great sword.

⁵When He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, “Come and see!”

So I looked and beheld, a black horse, and he who sat on him had a pair of scales in his hand.

⁶And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures say,

“A measure of wheat for a penny and three measures of barley for a penny; see that you do not damage the oil and wine.”

⁷When He had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, “Come and see.”

⁸And I looked and beheld a pale horse, and the name of him who sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him.

And power was given to them over a fourth of the earth, to kill with hunger, with the sword, with death and with the beasts of the earth.

⁹And when He had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the testimony which they fervently held.

¹⁰And they cried with a loud voice, saying, “How long, O Lord, holy and true, until You judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?”

¹¹Then each of them was given a white robe; and it was said to them that they should rest for a little while longer until the number of their fellow-servants and their brethren that should be killed as they were, was completed.

¹²And I looked and when He opened the sixth seal, behold, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as a sackcloth of hair, and the moon became like blood.

¹³And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as the fig tree casts her young figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind.

¹⁴And the sky then receded as a scroll when it is rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved out of their places.

¹⁵And the kings of the earth, the great men, the rich, the chief captains, the mighty men, every slave and every free man, hid themselves in the rocks of the mountains and in the caves,

¹⁶and said to the mountains and rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits upon the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb!”

¹⁷For the great day of His wrath has come and who is able then to stand?”

HAVE you been through tribulation
Garments tattered, yet you stand?
Well, you will wash your robes white in the blood of the Lamb.
Multitudes are before Him of every nation,
tribe and tongue,
Angels bowing down and crying,
“To You be blessings, honor, power and wisdom!”
Judgment is surely coming,
But the angels are restrained by an appeal;
Holding the winds they remain standing
Until the saints of God are sealed.

REVELATION 7

¹And after these things I saw four angels were standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, on the sea, or on any tree.

²And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God, and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea,

³saying, “Do not harm the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the servants of God in their foreheads.”

⁴And I heard the number of those who were sealed.

One hundred and forty-four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel were sealed.

⁵Of the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand were sealed;

⁶of the tribes of Reuben, Gad and Asher twelve thousand each were sealed;

⁷of the tribes of Naphtali, Manasseh and Simeon, twelve thousand each were sealed.

⁸Of the tribes of Levi, Issachar and Zebulun twelve thousand each were sealed; of the tribe of Joseph and of Benjamin twelve thousand each were sealed.

⁹After this, I looked and saw a great multitude which no man could number, of all nations, tribes, people and tongues standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, all having palms in their hands.

¹⁰And they cried, saying with a loud voice, “Salvation belongs to our God who sits upon the throne, and to the Lamb!”

¹¹Then all the angels stood around the throne and the elders and the four living creatures and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God,

¹²saying, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom; thanksgiving and honor and power and might, be unto our God forever and ever. Amen!”

¹³Then one of the elders answered, saying to me,

“Who are these that are arrayed in white robes and where are they from?”

¹⁴And I said to him, “Sir, you know.”

So he said to me,

"These are those who came out of great tribulation and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

¹⁵Therefore they are before the throne of God and serve Him day and night in the temple. And He who sits on the throne will dwell among them.

¹⁶They shall neither hunger nor thirst anymore.

The sun shall not smite them, nor any heat; ¹⁷"For the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne shall feed them and lead them to living fountains of water.

And God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes!"

@He will take every heartache, every sorrow, every pain, for God shall wipe away, all tears from the eyes.

WOE, Woe! These are times when silence makes a deafening sound; Where the sea turns to blood, And there are three trumpets yet to sound! The prayers of the saints are offered with incense; There is lightning, thunder and quake, The waters became deathly bitter, and yes, half an hour of silence—disaster is about to break.

REVELATION 8

¹And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about half an hour.

²And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and to them were given seven trumpets.

³Then another angel, having a golden censer, came and stood at the altar.

Much incense was given to him there, that he should offer it with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

⁴And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the hand of the angel.

⁵Then the angel took the censer and filled it with the fire from the altar, and cast it upon the earth.

And there were voices, lightning and thundering and earthquakes.

⁶And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

⁷The first angel sounded: and hail and fire followed mingled with blood, and these were thrown upon the earth. And a third of the trees were burnt, and the green grass was burnt up.

⁸Then the second angel sounded: and what looked to be a great mountain, burning with fire was thrown into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood.

⁹And a third of all living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

¹⁰Then the third angel sounded: and a great star fell from heaven, burning as like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the fountains of waters.

¹¹And the name of the star is Wormwood; and a third part of the waters became worm-wood, and many men died from the water, because it was made bitter and poisoned.

¹²Then the fourth angel sounded, and a third of the sun was smitten, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened. A third of the day did not shine and likewise the night.

¹³And I observed and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice;

“Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth because of the remaining voices of the trumpet of the three angels yet to sound!”

WILL you repent of the works of your hands?

Do the things you attest to make you think a second?

Men seeking death like treasure, but death they cannot find;

Tormenting locusts; make them wish they could die.

Stings like a scorpion, torment for three months at a time, yet they did not repent of the works of their hands.

Four angels were loosed, prepared for that day,

Horses with heads of lions and fiery breast-plates.

It was their mission to kill one-third of man,

Yet they still did not repent of the works of their hands!

REVELATION 9

¹Then the fifth angel sounded: and I saw a star fall from heaven to the earth. To him was given the key to the bottomless pit.

²And he opened the bottomless pit, and smoke arose out of the pit, like the smoke of a great furnace, so the sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke from the pit.

³And out of the smoke, locusts came upon the earth.

And to them was given power, just as the scorpions of the earth.

⁴And they were commanded not to harm the grass, or any green thing, or any tree, but only the men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads.

⁵And they were not given the authority to kill them but that they should torment them for five months.

And their torment was as the torment of a scorpion; as the piercing pain when it strikes a man.

⁶In those days men will seek death, but will not find it; they will desire to die but death will flee from them.

⁷And the shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared for battle.

On their heads were, what appeared to be, crowns of gold, and their faces were like the faces of men.

⁸They had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like the teeth of lions.

⁹And they had breastplates, like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots with many horses running into battle.

¹⁰They had tails like the tail of a scorpion, and there were stings in their tails.

They had power to hurt men for five months.

¹¹And over them they had a king, the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name is Abaddon in Hebrew and Apollyon in Greek.

¹²One woe is past; behold, there are still two more woes to come.

¹³And the sixth angel sounded:

and I heard a sound; a voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God,

¹⁴saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet,

"Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates!"

¹⁵So the four angels who were prepared for the hour and day and month and year were set loose to kill a third of men.

¹⁶Now the number of the army of the horsemen was two hundred million; I heard the number of them, ¹⁷and I saw the horses in the vision; those who sat on them had breastplates of fire, and of brimstone and jacinth; and the heads of the horses were like the heads of lions, and out of their mouths came smoke, fire and brimstone.

¹⁸By these three plagues a third of all men were killed; by the fire and smoke and brimstone, which came out of their mouths.

¹⁹For their power is in their mouths and in their tails;

for their tails were like serpents, having heads, and with them they do harm.

²⁰And the rest of mankind who were not killed by these plagues, saw all the destruction, yet did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils and idols of gold, silver, brass, wood and stone, which neither can see nor hear nor walk.

²¹Neither did they repent of their murders, or their sorceries, or their thefts or their fornication.

No, they did not repent of the works of their hands!

A RAINBOW on his head; his face was like the sun; One foot was on the earth and on the sea he had one. He spoke marvellous things that I had to seal. He gave me a little book, bitter to the soul

but on the tongue sweet.
For I was yet to prophesy before nations and tongues!

REVELATION 10

¹And I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud. His face was like the sun; upon his head was a rainbow and his feet like pillars of fire.

²He had a little book open in his hand. He set his right foot on the sea, and his left on the land, ³and cried with a loud voice, like the roaring of a lion. Seven thunders uttered their voices when he cried out.

⁴When the seven thunders had uttered their words, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, “Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them!”

⁵The angel who I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted his hand to heaven, ⁶and he swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and all the things that are in it, and the earth and all things therein, and the sea and all things that are in it, that there should be no more delay.

⁷But in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God will be finished as He declared to His servants the prophets.

⁸Then the voice I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said,

“Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the land.”

⁹So I went to the angel and I said to him, “Give me the little book.”

And he gave it to me and said, “Take it, and eat it; it will make your stomach bitter, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth!”

¹⁰Then I took the little book out of the angel’s hand and ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth, but as soon as I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter.

¹¹And He said to me, “You must prophesy again before many peoples, nations, tongues and kings.”

REVELATION 11

¹And there was given me a reed, like a rod, and the angel of God stood and said, “Rise and measure the temple of God, the altar and those who worship there.

²But leave out the court outside the temple, do not measure it, for it is given to the Gentiles. And they shall tread the holy city under foot for forty-two months.

³“And I will give power to My two witnesses, and they will prophesy twelve hundred and sixty days clothed in sackcloth.”

⁴These are the two olive trees and the two candlestands standing before the God of the earth.

⁵Now, if anyone wants to do them harm, fire will proceed out of their mouth and devour all their enemies.

And if anyone wants to hurt them, he will be killed in this manner.

⁶They have power to shut up heaven, so that in the days of their prophecy it does not rain, and power over waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with all plagues, as often as they desire.

⁷When they finish their testimony, the beast who ascends out of the bottomless pit will make war against them, overcome them and kill them.

⁸And their dead bodies will lie in the streets of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where our Lord was also crucified.

⁹And those from the peoples, tribes, tongues and nations will see their dead bodies three and a half days, and not allow their bodies to be put in graves.

¹⁰And those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them, make merry and send gifts to one another, because these prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.

¹¹Now after three and a half days, the spirit of life from God entered them, and they revived and stood on their feet, and great fear fell on all who saw them.

¹²And they heard a great voice from heaven telling them, "Come up here!"

And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies saw them, amazed.

¹³In that same hour, there was a great earthquake, and a tenth part of the city fell.

In the earthquake seven thousand people were killed, and those who remained were afraid and gave glory to the God of heaven.

¹⁴The second woe is passed; behold the third woe comes quickly.

¹⁵And the seventh angel sounded:

and there were great voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever!"

¹⁶And the twenty-four angels who sat before God on their seats fell down on their faces and worshipped God, ¹⁷saying, "We give You thanks, O Lord, God Almighty, the One who is and who was and who is to come, because You have taken Your great power and have reigned.

¹⁸The nations were angry, and Your wrath has come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that You should reward Your servants the prophets and the saints and those who fear Your name, both small and great,

and should destroy those who destroy the earth."

¹⁹And after this the temple of God was opened in heaven, and the Ark of His covenant was seen in His temple.

And there was lightning and voices and thundering, an earthquake and great hail.

D DRAGONFLIES and dragon rise, and dragon fall;
The great serpent called the devil can tell you of it all.

The accuser of the brethren,
Cast down by God out of heaven,
Comes with great vengeance and wrath,
Because he knows his time is short.
When he sends fire and sends flood,
God will send help and send the blood;
He will seek your seed and, likewise,
Everyone who has the testimony of Christ.

REVELATION 12

¹Now a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and upon her head was a crown of twelve stars.

²Being with child, she cried out in labor and travail and was in pain to give birth.

³And another sign appeared in heaven; behold, a great red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his head.

⁴His tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to give birth, to devour her Child as soon as it was born.

⁵And the woman gave birth to a Son, who was to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. And her Child was caught up to God and to His throne.

⁶Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where God had prepared a place for her, that they should feed her there for one thousand, two hundred and sixty days.

⁷And war broke out in heaven; Michael and his angels fought with the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought, ⁸but they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them in heaven any more.

⁹So the great dragon was cast out, the serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world.

He was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

¹⁰Then I heard a loud voice in heaven saying, "Now salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come, for the accuser of the brethren, who accused them before our God day and night, is cast down.

¹¹And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to death.

¹²Therefore rejoice O heavens, and you who dwell in them!

Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and the sea!

For the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, because he knows he only has a short time."

¹³Now when the dragon saw that he had been cast to the earth,

he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male Child.

¹⁴But the woman was given two wings of a great eagle that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, where she was nourished for a time and times and half a time from the offence of the serpent.

¹⁵And the serpent cast water out of his mouth like a flood after the woman, that he might cause the flood to carry her away.

¹⁶But the earth helped the woman; the earth opened up her mouth and it swallowed up the flood that the dragon cast from his mouth.

¹⁷And the dragon was very angry with the woman, and he went to make war with the remainder of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

- By the power of the Holy Spirit, I draw a ring of fire around every vision and visionary targeted by the enemy, in the name of Jesus.
- They gather together but not of You; Father, let Your right hand of judgment descend into every gathering against the word and work of the living God, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

SIX, six, six! That is the mark of the beast;
No one will be able to buy or sell without that mark on the right hand or on the forehead.
But there is a Lamb's book of life,
and in that book my name's inscribed.
So show me your wonders and your signs;
You can kill my body if you like;
Nothing to eat, I would rather die!
I will remain faithful to the Word.
I will make no demon-beast my lord.

REVELATION 13

¹And I stood on the sand of the sea, and I saw a beast rise out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his horns were ten crowns, and on his head a blasphemous name.

²The beast that I saw there looked like a leopard, his feet were like the feet of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave Him power, his throne and great authority.

³And I saw one of his heads as if it had been mortally wounded, and his deadly wound was healed.

And all the world marvelled and followed the beast.

⁴And they worshipped the dragon who gave power to the beast; and they worshipped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast?"

Who is able to make war with him?"

⁵And he was given a mouth, speaking great things and blasphemies, and he was given authority to continue for forty-two months.

⁶Then he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, His tabernacle, and those who dwell with Him in heaven.

⁷And he was granted authority to make war with the saints and to overcome them.

And power was given him over every tribe tongue and nation.

⁸All who dwell on the earth will worship him, whose names are not written in the Book of Life of the Lamb, who were slain from the foundation of the world.

⁹If anyone has an ear, let him hear.

¹⁰He who leads into captivity, into captivity he shall go;

he who kills with the sword must be killed with the sword.

Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

¹¹Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth and he had two horns like a lamb, but he spoke like a dragon.

¹²And he exercised all the power of the first beast in his presence, and caused the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

¹³He performed great and mighty signs, so that he made fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men.

¹⁴And he deceived those who dwelt upon the earth, by means of those great signs which he had power to do in the sight of the beast, telling them who dwell on the earth, to make an image to the beast who was wounded by the sword yet lived.

¹⁵And he was granted power to give life to the image of the beast; that the image of the beast should both speak and also cause all those who did not worship the image of the beast to be killed.

¹⁶And he caused all, both great and small, rich and poor, bond and free, to receive a mark on the right hand or on their forehead,

¹⁷that no man might buy or sell-- but I'd die of hunger; I would rather be dead-- unless he had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name, one of these.

¹⁸Here is wisdom; let him who has understanding perceive and compute the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man.

And his number is six hundred and sixty-six;
666!

WILL you? Oh, will you? This I must ask.

Will you be drinking of the wine of God's wrath,

Poured out without mixture with indignation and done?

Like grapes in a winepress, the process brings blood!

Will you? Oh, will you? Again I must ask, will you receive the Satanic beast's mark?

Now will you? Or will you rather respond to Christ,

And, like the one hundred and forty-four thousand, be found without guile,

Hearing God, giving Him glory, for judgment is come?

Will you be reaped by an angel or reaped by the Son?

REVELATION 14

¹And I looked and behold, a Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him, one hundred and forty-four thousand, having His Father's name written on their foreheads.

²And I heard a voice from heaven, like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of loud thunder, and I also heard the sound of harpers, playing their harps.

³And I heard them sing, as it were, a new song before the throne, before the four living-creatures and the elders.

No one could learn that song but the one hundred and forty-four thousand who were redeemed from the earth.

⁴These are those who were not defiled with women, for they were virgins. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes.

These were redeemed from among men, being first-fruits to God and to the Lamb.

⁵No deceit was found in their mouth, for they are without fault before the throne of God.

⁶Then I saw another angel flying in the midst of heaven, having the eternal gospel to preach to those who dwell on the earth, to every nation, tribe, tongue and people,

⁷saying with a loud voice, "Fear God and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment has arrived, and worship Him who made heaven, the earth and the sea and the fountains of water."

⁸And another angel followed, saying, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen; that great city, because she has made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication!”

⁹Then the third angel followed immediately, saying with a loud voice,

“If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives his mark on his forehead or on his hand, ¹⁰he shall also drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without dilution into the cup of His indignation.

And he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb.

¹¹And the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever;

and they have no rest night or day, who worship the beast and his image and receive the mark of his name.”

¹²Here is the patience of the saints; here are those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus Christ!

¹³Then I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, “Write:

‘Blessed are the dead, who die in the Lord from now on.’”

“Yes,” says the Spirit, “that they may rest from their labors, and their works follow them!”

¹⁴Then I looked and saw a white cloud, and on the cloud sat One like the Son of man, having on His head a golden crown and in His hand a sharp sickle.

¹⁵And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a very loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, saying,

“Thrust in now; thrust in Your sickle and reap, for the time has come for You to reap, for the harvest of the earth is ripe!”

¹⁶So He who sat on the cloud thrust in His sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

¹⁷Then another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also had a sharp sickle.

¹⁸And another angel came out of the altar, who had power over fire, and he cried with a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, and said, “Thrust in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe!”

¹⁹And the angel thrust his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God.

²⁰And the winepress was trampled outside the city, and out of it flowed blood, going out to the horses’ bridles, for one thousand, six hundred furlongs.

Yes, will you be reaped by this angel or by the Son of man?

GREAT and worthy are Your works;
Great and worthy, O Lord God Almighty!

Just and true are Your ways, O King of all saints!
And as they sang the temple door opened and out, seven angels came, Fearsome and dressed for battle, in their hands were seven plagues.

REVELATION 15

¹Then I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous:
seven angels having the seven last plagues, for in them the wrath of God is fulfilled.

²And I saw what looked like a sea of glass that was mixed with fire, and those who had victory over the beast and over his image and over his mark and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of God.

³They were singing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, “Great and marvelous are Your works, Lord God Almighty!
Just and true are Your ways, O King of saints.

⁴“Who shall not fear You, O Lord?
Who shall not glorify Your name?
For You are holy, only You are holy.
For all nations shall come and worship before You, for Your judgments have been manifested.”

⁵And after that I looked and I beheld the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened.

⁶And out of the temple came the seven angels having the seven plagues, clothed in pure white linen, and having their chest girded with golden bands.

⁷Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God who lives forever and ever.

⁸Then the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power, and no one was able to enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

WHEN grievous sores are upon man and beasts,

And every soul has died in the sea,
And the fountains of water are turned into blood,

It is good for men to say, “You are worthy, O God!”

When the sun scorches men with a great heat,

When thunder, lightning and earthquakes refuse to cease,

When mountains are not found and every island flees,

It is wisdom to say, “O God, You are worthy.”

Repent! But know, even before these destructions come,

It is best for you if you repent right now.

REVELATION 16

¹And I heard a great voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, “Go and pour out the vials of God’s wrath upon the earth.”

²And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth.

And a loathsome and grievous sore came upon those who had the mark of the beast and those who worshipped his image.

³Then the second angel poured out his vial on the sea, and it became as the blood of a dead man, and every living creature in the sea died.

⁴Then the third angel poured out his vial on the rivers and on the springs of water, and they became blood.

⁵And I heard the angel of the waters say, “You are righteous, O God, who is, and who was, and is to be, because You have judged these things;

⁶for they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and You have given them blood to drink, for it is their just reward.”

⁷And I heard another from the altar say, “Even so, Lord God Almighty, Your judgments are righteous and true!”

⁸Then the fourth angel poured out his vial on the sun, and he was given power to scorch men with fire.

⁹And men were scorched with great heat, and they blasphemed the name of God who had power over these plagues; and they did not repent and give Him glory!

¹⁰Then the fifth angel poured out his vial on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom became full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues because of the pain.

¹¹They blasphemed the God of heaven, because of their pains and their sores, and they still did not repent of their deeds.

¹²Then the sixth angel poured out his vial on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, so that the way of the kings from the east may be prepared.

¹³And I saw three unclean spirits, like frogs, coming out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, ¹⁴for they are spirits of demons doing miraculous signs, which go out to the kings of the earth and of the entire world, to gather them to the battle of the great day of Almighty God!

¹⁵“Behold, I am coming as a thief. Blessed is he who watches and keeps his garments, lest he walks naked and they see his shame!”

¹⁶And he gathered them together to a certain place, called in Hebrew, Armageddon.

¹⁷Then the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air, and a loud noise came out of the temple of heaven, from the throne saying, “It is done!”

¹⁸And there were voices and thunders and lightning; and there was a great earthquake, such a mighty and great earthquake as had never taken place since men were on the earth.

¹⁹And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell.

And great Babylon was remembered before God, to give her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath.

²⁰Then every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

²¹And a great hail fell from heaven upon men; each stone was about the weight of a talent. Men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for the plague was very great.

SHE is the great whore seated on the Swater;
She drinks up the blood of the saints and the martyrs.
She is Mystery Babylon! She brings the whole earth disaster;
the mother of harlots she is.

I will not be aligned with the whore, for her end shall be painful. He is the Lamb who overcomes; in battle He is powerful. Those who are with Him are called and chosen and faithful; King of kings, Lord of lords is He.

REVELATION 17

¹Then one of the seven angels who had the seven vials came and talked with me, saying, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters, ²with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication." ³So he carried me away in the Spirit into the wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet colored beast which was full of names of blasphemy. It had seven heads and ten horns. ⁴The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication. ⁵And on her forehead a name was written: "MYSTERY BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." ⁶I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus; and when I saw her I marvelled with great amazement. ⁷And the angel said to me, "Why do you marvel and wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. ⁸"The beast that you saw was, and is not, and will ascend out of the bottomless pit and go to perdition. And those who dwell on the earth will marvel, whose names are not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, when they see the beast that was and is not and yet is. ⁹"Here is the mind which has wisdom: the seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits. ¹⁰There are also seven kings. Five are fallen, one remains and the other has not yet come. When he comes, he must continue a short time, ¹¹then the beast that was and is not, is himself also the eighth, and he is of the seven, and is going into perdition. ¹²And the ten horns you saw are ten kings who have not received a kingdom as yet, but they receive authority for one hour as kings with the beast.

¹³These have one mind and will give their power and strength to the beast. ¹⁴They will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them, for He is Lord of lords and King of kings! And those who are with Him are called, chosen and faithful." ¹⁵Then He said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations and tongues. ¹⁶And the ten horns which you saw upon the beast, these will hate the harlot, make her naked and desolate, eat her flesh and burn her with fire. ¹⁷"For God has put it in their hearts to fulfil His will, to agree and to give their kingdom to the beasts, until the word of God is fulfilled. ¹⁸And the woman who you saw is the great city which reigns over the kings of the earth."

COME out of her, My people; out of Babylon come away.

Do not partake of her sins and you will not of her plagues.

It is where merchants are made rich; they trade much pearls, wares and gold; But do not be moved by this; it is best to leave well-to-do alone.

When her candlelight is put out, yours will still shine.

Come away from her fornications; you must not drink of her wine.

Come out of her, My people! Yes, heed God's call;

Death packaged in riches must not rob you of your all.

REVELATION 18

¹And after these I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was lit up with his glory.

²And he cried mightily, saying with a strong voice,

"Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and has become the habitat of demons, a prison for every foul spirit, and a cage for every unclean and hated bird!

³For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

The kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her luxury."

⁴And I heard another voice from heaven saying,

"Come out of her, My people, so that you do not partake of her sins, and that you do not partake of her plagues.

⁵For her sins have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities.

⁶Reward her as she rewarded you, and give to her double according to her works; apportion to her double in the cup which she has mixed.

⁷How much has she glorified herself and lived luxuriously!

In the same abundance give her torment and sorrow;

for she says in her heart, 'I sit as queen, and am no widow, and will see no sorrow again!'

⁸Therefore her plagues will come in one day: death, mourning and famine.

And she will be utterly burned with fire, for the Lord God who judges her is strong.

⁹"The kings of the earth who have committed fornication and who lived sensuously with her, will certainly weep and lament for her when they see the smoke of her burning.

¹⁰They shall stand at a distance for fear of her torment, saying, 'Alas, alas, that mighty city, that great city Babylon!

For in one hour, just one hour, your judgment has come.'

¹¹And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, for no man buys their merchandise anymore:

¹²the merchandise of fine linen, pearls, silver and gold, purple, silk and scarlet, citron wood and precious stones;

all types of vessels of ivory and vessels of most precious wood, bronze, iron and marble;

¹³and cinnamon and spices, fragrant ointments, frankincense, wine and oil, fine flour and wheat, cattle, sheep, horses and chariots, slaves and, yes, the souls of men.

¹⁴The fruits your soul lusted after have gone from you, and all the things that were splendid and precious have gone and you shall find them no more.

¹⁵"The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand at a distance, for fear of her torment, weeping and wailing and saying,

¹⁶'Alas, alas, that great city that was clothed in fine linen, purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold, precious stones and pearls,

¹⁷for in one hour so great riches came to nothing!'

And every shipmaster, all who travel by ships, and sailors and as many as trade by the sea, stood at a distance,

¹⁸"and cried out when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying,

'What city is like unto this great city?'

¹⁹They threw dust on their heads and cried aloud, weeping and wailing, and saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city, we were made rich by her, and all who had ships on the sea were made rich by her wealth!

For in one hour, in just one hour, she is made desolate.'

²⁰"Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets, for God has avenged you of her!”

²¹Then a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, “So with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down and shall not be found anymore!

²²And the sound of harpist, musicians, pipers, and trumpeters shall not be heard in you ever again, and no craftsmen of whatever craft shall be found in you ever again and the sound of a millstone shall be heard in you no more, ²³and the light of the candle shall shine in you no more.

and the voice of the bridegroom, and of the bride shall be heard in you no more! For your merchants were the great men of the earth, for all nations were deceived by your sorcery.

²⁴And in her was found the blood of prophets and saints, and of all those who were slain upon the earth.”

BEHOLD the Lamb of God, the worthy Lamb of God, He is Faithful and True; dipped in blood is His vesture. His name is the Word of God. Let us rejoice and be glad; This is the marriage of the Lamb. Ready is His bride, clothed in fine linen and white. Behold the Lamb of God!

REVELATION 19

- ¹And after these things I heard a mighty voice of a multitude in heaven, saying, “Alleluia! Salvation and glory and honour and power be unto the Lord our God!
- ²For His judgments are righteous and true, because He has judged the great harlot who corrupted the earth with her fornications, and He has avenged the blood of His servants shed by her hand.”
- ³Again they said, “Alleluia! Her smoke rises up forever and ever!”
- ⁴Then the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshipped God who sat on the throne, saying, “Amen! Alleluia!”
- ⁵And a voice came from the throne, saying, “Praise our God, all you His servants and those who fear Him, both small and great!”
- ⁶And I heard a voice, as if it was a great multitude, as the sound of many waters, and as the sound of mighty thundering, saying, “Alleluia! For the Lord God omnipotent reigns!
- ⁷Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready.

⁸And it was granted to her that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white; for this fine linen is the righteousness of the saints.”

⁹Then he said to me, “Write, ‘Blessed are those who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb!’”

And he said to me, “These are the true sayings of God!”

¹⁰And I fell down at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, “See that you do not do this!

I am your fellow-servant and of your brethren who have the testimony of Jesus. Worship God!

For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

¹¹Then I saw heavens opened and I saw a white horse.

And He who sat on him was called Faithful and True;

in righteousness He judges and makes war.

¹²His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns.

He had a name written that no one knows but He Himself alone.

¹³And He is clothed with a robe that was dipped in blood, and His name is called THE WORD OF GOD.

¹⁴The armies in heaven followed Him that day on white horses; they were clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

¹⁵Out of His mouth went a sword, with which He should smite the nations.

And He will rule them with a rod of iron.

He treads the winepress of the fierceness of the wrath of Almighty God.

¹⁶And He has on His robe, and on His thigh a name written

KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

¹⁷Then I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to the birds of heaven, “Come and gather yourselves together for the supper of the great God, ¹⁸“that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, free and enslaved, both small and great.”

¹⁹And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who sat on the horse and against His army.

²⁰And the beast was captured, and the false prophet who performed signs before him, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast, and those who worshipped his image.

These both were cast alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone.

²¹The rest were slain with the sword of Him who sat upon the horse, whose sword proceeded out of His mouth; and the birds were filled with their flesh.

AT a time when heaven and earth flee away, because there was no place for them again, Will a place exist for you in the Lamb's book of life? A thousand years of terror, then everlasting chains, When the martyrs with Christ as kings and priests will reign, After which both man and Satan will face everlasting blaze. When before God shall stand the dead both small and great, In the Lamb's book of life, will there be found your name?

REVELATION 20

¹Then I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the keys of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

²And he laid hold of the dragon, that serpent of old who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years, ³and threw him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up there, and set a seal on him that he should deceive the nations no more until the fulfilment of the thousand years.

But after this he must be released for a short season.

⁴And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was committed to them. And I saw the souls of those who were beheaded for the witness of Jesus Christ and for the word of God, who had not worshipped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands.

And they lived and reigned for a thousand years with Christ.

⁵But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished.

This is the first resurrection.

⁶Blessed and holy is he who has a part in the first resurrection.

Over such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign a thousand years with Him.

⁷And Satan shall be released from his prison when the thousand years are up, ⁸and he will go out to deceive the nations, which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle; their number is as the sand of the sea.

⁹They went up, out on the breadth of the earth, and surrounded the saints and the beloved city.

And fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them.

¹⁰Then the devil who deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone where the beast and false prophets are.

And they will be tormented day and night, forever and ever.

¹¹Then I saw a great white throne and Him who sat on it, from whose face the heaven and the earth fled.

And there was found no place for them.

¹²And I saw the dead, both small and great standing before God, and the books were opened.

And another book was opened which is the Book of Life; and the dead were judged that day according to their works by the things which were written in the books.

¹³And the sea gave up the dead who were in it. And Death and Hades delivered up the dead who were in them.

And each one was judged according to his works.

¹⁴And Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire.

This is the second death.

¹⁵And anyone not found written in the Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire.

NO more tears to dim the eyes,
No more pain to steal the smiles;
No, no more pain!
I beheld a new Jerusalem
And men freely drinking from the fountain
Where the sun no more shines,
And with gold the streets are paved and lined;
There we will live in the light of the Risen Lamb!
No more death, no more pain,
No more tears, no more crying again;
We will live in the light of the Risen Lamb!

REVELATION 21

¹And I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no sea anymore.

²And I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride, adorned for her husband.

³And I heard a loud voice out of heaven, saying, "Behold the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. And God Himself will be with them, and He will be their God.

⁴And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

And there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying; there shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away."

⁵Then He who sat on the throne spoke, saying, "Behold I make all things new."

And He said to me, "Write, for these words are faithful and true."

⁶And He said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha, the Omega, the Beginning and the End.

I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely to him who thirsts.

⁷He who overcomes will inherit all things, and I will be his God and he will be My son.

⁸But the fearful, the unbelieving, the abominable, murderers, fornicators, sorcerers, idolaters and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone; this is the second death."

⁹Then one of the seven angels who had seven vials filled with the seven last plagues came and said to me,

"Come, I will show you the bride, the Lamb's wife."

¹⁰And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending from God out of heaven, ¹¹having the glory of God.

Her light was like a most precious stone, like a jasper stone, clear as crystal.

¹²She had a great and high wall with twelve gates.

At the gates were twelve angels.

And names were written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of Israel:

¹³three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, three gates on the west.

¹⁴The city walls had twelve foundations, and on them were written the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

¹⁵And he who talked with me had a gold reed to measure the city, its gates and its wall.

¹⁶The city was laid out as four-squares, the length being as large as the breadth.

And he measured the city with the reed he had prepared; it was twelve thousand furlongs;

the length, breadth and height all being equal.
 17 And he measured its wall:

it was one hundred and forty-four cubits according to the measure of man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of its wall was of jasper; and the city was pure gold, like clear glass.

19 The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with all types of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, 20 the fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst.

21 The twelve gates were twelve pearls; each individual gate was made of one pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, so pure that it was as transparent glass.

22 And I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple.

23 The city had no need of the sun, or of the moon to shine in it, for the glory of God made it bright. The Lamb is its light.

24 And the nations of those who are saved shall walk in its light.

And the kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honor into it.

25 Its gates shall not be shut by day, (no night shall be there).

26 And they shall bring the glory and honor of the nations into it.

27 And there shall by no means enter anything that defiles into it, or any who causes abomination or a lie, but those who are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

THERE is a river of life flowing from the throne of God, And there are trees of life growing there on its banks.

The river of life; living waters; it flows with healing and abundance.

Behold He comes quickly, so come quickly to Him!

Come to Jesus; to the bright and morning star.

Come to the one who has with Him His reward.

The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!"

REVELATION 22

¹And He showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

²In the midst of its street and on either side of the river, was the tree of life which bore twelve manner of fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month. The leaves were for the healing of the nations.

³And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it.

And His servants shall serve Him.

⁴They shall see His face, and His name shall be in their foreheads.

⁵There shall be no night there. They will need no candle, nor the sun's light, for the Lord God gives them light.

And they shall reign forever and ever.

⁶Then he said to me, "These sayings are faithful and true;

and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent His angel to show to His servants the things that must shortly take place."

⁷"Behold I come quickly!

Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

⁸And I, John, saw and heard these things.

And when I had heard and also had seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed these things to me.

⁹But he said to me, "See that you do not do this, for I am your fellow servant and of your brethren the prophets, and of those who keep the words of this book; worship God."

¹⁰And he said to me, "Do not seal the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is at hand.

¹¹He who is unjust, let him be unjust still.

He who is filthy, let him be filthy still.

He who is righteous, let him be righteous still.

He who is holy, let him be holy still."

¹²"And behold, I come quickly, and My reward is with Me to give to every man according to his work.

¹³I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last!"

¹⁴Blessed are those who do His commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life and may enter into the city through the gates.

¹⁵Those who are outside are dogs and sorcerers, and fornicators, and murderers and idolaters, and whoever loves and practices a lie.

¹⁶"I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify to you these things in the churches.

I am the Root and the Offspring of David, the Bright and Morning Star!"

¹⁷The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!"

Let him who hears say, "Come!"

Let him who thirsts come.

Whoever desires, let him come and take of the water of life freely.

¹⁸For I testify to everyone who hears the word of the prophecy of this book.

And if any one adds to these things, God shall add to him the plagues that are written in this book.

¹⁹And if anyone shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part from the Book of Life, from the Holy City, and from the things written in this book.

²⁰He who testifies to these things says, "Surely I come quickly!" Amen.

Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

²¹The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you all. Amen.
