

The Book of ZECHARIAH

RED and speckled horses, What do you see?

The whole earth secure, resting at ease. Did you ask them, "How can you be, when with you the Lord is very displeased?"

The Lord says, "I will turn to you if you turn to Me;

Turn away from your evil deeds!"

While the Lord breaks the horn of the Gentiles, it shall be

That to you, Israel, the Lord speaks peace!

ZECHARIAH 1

¹In the eighth month of the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came to Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet Iddo, saying,

²The Lord has been very displeased with your fathers.

³Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord of hosts: "Return to Me, and I will return to you," says the Lord of hosts.

⁴"Do not be like your fathers to whom the former prophets preached, saying,

Thus says the Lord of hosts, "Turn now from your evil ways and your evil deeds!"

"But they would not hear nor heed Me," says the Lord.

⁵Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever?

⁶Yet surely My words and My statutes, which I commanded My servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers?

So they returned and said, Just as the Lord of hosts determined to do to us, according to our ways and according to our actions, so He has dealt with us."

⁷On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came to Zechariah, Berechiah's son, the son of Iddo the prophet

⁸I saw by night, and behold, a man riding on a red horse, and before the myrtle trees there in the bottom it stood;

and behind him were horses: red, white and speckled.

⁹Then I said, "My lord, what are these?" So the angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what they are."

¹⁰And the man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said,

"These are the ones whom the Lord has sent to walk to and fro throughout the earth."

¹¹So he answered the angel of the Lord who stood among the myrtle trees, saying, "We have walked to and fro throughout the earth, and behold, all the earth sits still and is resting quietly."

¹²Then the angel of the Lord answered and said, "O Lord of hosts, "how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which You were angry these seventy years?"

¹³And the Lord answered the angel who talked with me with good and comfortable words.

¹⁴So the angel who spoke with me said to me, "Proclaim, saying, Thus says the Lord of hosts,

"I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with great jealousy.

¹⁵"And I am very displeased with the nations which are at ease, for I was but a little angry, and they helped, but with evil intent."

¹⁶Therefore thus says the Lord, "I am returning to Jerusalem with mercy.

My house shall be built in it," says the Lord of hosts,

"and a surveyor's line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem."

¹⁷Again proclaim, saying, Thus says the Lord of hosts:

"My cities shall again spread out through prosperity;

the Lord will again comfort Zion, and will choose Jerusalem."

¹⁸Then I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and behold, there were four horns.

¹⁹And I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these?"

So he answered me, "These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem."

²⁰Then the Lord showed me four craftsmen.

²¹And I said, "What are these coming to do?"

So he said, "These are the horns that scattered Judah, so that no man could lift up his head; but the craftsmen are coming to terrify them, to cast out the horns of the nations that lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it."

"He has sent Me after glory, to the nation which plunders you, for he who touches you, touches the apple of His eye.

¹Then he showed me Joshua the high priest; standing before the angel of the Lord, and Satan stood at his right hand to resist him. ²And the Lord said to Satan, “The Lord rebuke you Satan! The LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebukes you!

Is this not a brand plucked from the fire?”

ZECHARIAH 4

¹Now the angel of the Lord who talked with me, came back and wakened me, as a man who is wakened out of his sleep.

²And he said to me, “What do you see?” So I said, “I see a lampstand of solid gold, and on the stand seven lamps with seven pipes to the seven lamps.

¹⁰For who has despised the day of small things?

For these seven rejoice to see the plumbline in the hand of Zerubbabel.

They are the eyes of the Lord, which scan to and fro throughout the whole earth.”

¹¹Then I answered and said to him,

¹²And I questioned him further, “What are these two olive branches that drip into the receptacles of the two golden pipes from which the golden oil drains?”

¹³Then he answered me and said, “Do you not know what these are?”

And I said, “No, my lord.”

¹⁴So he said, “These are the two anointed ones who stand beside the Lord of the whole earth!”

To dwell in her midst;
When boys and girls
Will be playing in the streets;

For the Lord is a hater of these,
Then shall strong nations come to Jerusalem,
the Lord of hosts to seek!

6^aThus says the Lord of hosts,

‘If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of people in these days, will it also be marvelous in My eyes?’ says the Lord of hosts.

8^aI will bring them back and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem.

11^aBut I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days,’ says the Lord of hosts.

12^aFor the seed shall be prosperous, the vine shall give its fruits, the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew.

I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these.

‘Just as I determined to punish you, when your fathers provoked Me to wrath,’ says the Lord of hosts, ‘and I would not relent,’

15^aso again in these days,

I am determined to do good, to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Do not fear.

16^aThese are the things that you shall do: speak each man the truth to his neighbor.

Give judgment in your gates for truth, justice and peace.

¹⁷Let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against your neighbor and love no false oath. For all these are things that I hate,' says the Lord."

¹⁸And again the word of the Lord of hosts came to me, saying,

¹⁹"Thus says the Lord of hosts, The fast of the fourth month, the fast of the fifth the fast of the seventh and the fast of the tenth, shall be joy and gladness and cheerful feasts for the house of Judah.

'Therefore love the truth and peace.'

²⁰"Thus says the Lord of hosts:

'Peoples shall come, inhabitants of many cities; ²¹the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying,

"Let us continue to go and pray before the Lord, and seek the Lord of hosts. I myself will also go."

²²Yes, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the Lord of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the Lord.'

²³"Thus says the Lord of hosts:

'In those days, ten men from every language of the nations, shall grasp the sleeve of a Jew, saying, "Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you."'"

His dominion shall be from the ends of the earth and from sea to sea. By the blood of His covenant He has set many prisoners free. Great in beauty and goodness all about, Speaking peace to the nations; rejoice and shout!

ZECHARIAH 9

¹The burden of the word of the Lord, against the land of Hadrach, and Damascus its resting place, (for the eyes of men, and all the tribes of Israel are on the Lord);

²also against Hamath, which borders on it, and against Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise.

³For Tyre built herself a tower, heaped up silver like the dust, and gold like the mire of the streets.

⁴Behold, the Lord will cast her out; He will destroy her power in the sea, and she will be devoured by fire.

⁵Ashkelon shall see it and fear. Gaza also shall be filled with sorrow, and Ekron, for He disappointed her expectations.

The king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

⁶A mixed race shall settle in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

⁷I will take the blood from his mouth, and the abominations from between his teeth. But he who remains, even he, shall be for our God;

Behold, your King is coming to you. He is just and having salvation, lowly and riding on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey.

He shall speak peace to the nations.
His dominion shall be from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.

¹¹As for you also,
because of the blood of your covenant,
I will set your prisoners free from the pit with no water.

¹²Return to your stronghold, you prisoners of hope.
Even today I declare, I will restore double to you.

fitted the bow with Ephraim,
and raised up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece,
and made you like the sword of a mighty man.

¹⁴Then the Lord will be seen over them,
and His arrow will go forth like lightning.
The Lord God will blow the trumpet,
and go with whirlwinds from the south.

¹⁵The Lord of hosts will defend them.
They shall devour and subdue with sling stones,
and shall drink and make a noise as if with wine.

They shall be filled with blood like basins,
like the corners of the altar.

¹⁶The Lord their God will save them in that day as the flock of His people.
For they shall be like the jewels of a crown, lifted like a banner over His land.

¹⁷For how great is His goodness,
and how great is His beauty.
Grain shall make the young men cheerful,
and new wine shall make the young women glad.

To be strengthened in the Lord,
To walk up and down in His name;
Out of Judah shall come the cornerstone,
Out of him shall come the nail!
The Lord shall punish the shepherds;
He shall punish the goats;
Ask Him for rain and He will send showers
To water the grass all about!

ZECHARIAH 10

¹Ask the Lord for rain
in the time of the flashing rain.
The Lord will make bright clouds and make rain come showering down on the grass in the field for everyone.

²For the idols speak vanity,
and the diviners envision lies,
and tell false dreams.

They give comfort in vain,
therefore the people wend their way like sheep,
they are in trouble because they have no
shepherd.

³My anger is kindled against the shepherds,
and I punished the goatherds.
For the Lord of hosts will visit His flock, the house of Judah,
and will make them as His royal horse in the battle.

⁴From him comes the cornerstone,
from him the nail proceed,
from him the battle bow,
from him every ruler together.

⁵They shall be like mighty men, who tread down their enemies
in the battle, in the mire of the streets.
They shall fight because the Lord is with them,

and the horses and riders shall be confounded.

⁶And I will strengthen the house of Judah,
and I will save the house of Joseph.
I will bring them back because I have mercy on them.

Then they shall be as though I had never cast
them off,
for I am the Lord their God and I will hear
them.

⁷Those of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man,
and their hearts shall rejoice as with wine.
Their children shall see it and be glad;
their heart shall rejoice in the Lord.

⁸I will whistle for them and gather them,
for I will redeem them;
and they shall increase as they once increased.

⁹I will sow them among the peoples,
and they shall remember Me in far countries.
they shall live together with their children,
and they shall return.

¹⁰I will also bring them again out of the land of Egypt,
and gather them from Assyria.
I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon,
until no more room is found for them.

¹¹He shall pass through the sea with affliction,
and strike the waves of the sea:
and all the depths of the River shall dry up.
Then the pride of Assyria shall be brought down,

¹²and the scepter of Egypt shall depart.
And I will strengthen them in the Lord, and they shall walk up and down in My name," says the Lord.

FOR thirty pieces of silver I was valued,
"Cast it in the potter's hands!"
In my hand are two staves;
They are named Beauty and Bonds.
When I cut Beauty in two,
I will break my covenant!

ZECHARIAH 11

¹Open up your doors, O Lebanon, that fire may devour your cedars.

²Wail, O cypress for the cedar has fallen, because the mighty trees are ruined.

Wail, O oaks of Bashan,
for the vintage forest has come down.

³There is the sound of wailing shepherds!
For their glory is in ruins.

There is the sound of roaring lions!
For the pride of Jordan is in ruins.

⁴Thus says the Lord my God.

⁵"Feed the flock for slaughter, whose owners slay them and feel no guilt.

Those who sell them say,
'Blessed be the Lord for I am rich;'
and their own shepherds do not pity them.

This is what the Lord says,

⁶"For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land,

but, behold I will deliver everyone into his neighbor's hand

and into the hand of his king.

They shall attack the land,
and I will not deliver them from their hands."

⁷So I fed the flock for slaughter, even the poor of the flock.

And I took for myself two staves;
one I called Beauty and the other I called Bonds;

and I fed the flock.

⁸I dismissed the three shepherds in one month.

My soul loathed them and their soul also hated me.

⁹Then I said, "I will not feed you!

Let what is dying die,

and that which is perishing perish.

Let those who are left eat each others' flesh."

¹⁰And I took my staff Beauty and cut it in two, that I might break the covenant which I made with all the peoples.

¹¹So on that day it was broken.

Thus the poor of the flock who were watching me, knew that it was the word of the Lord.

¹²Then I said to them,

"If it is agreeable with you, give me my wages; and if not, refrain."

So they weighed out what they thought right, thirty pieces of silver.

¹³And the Lord said to me,

"Throw it to the potter, that good price at which they valued Me."

So I took the thirty prices of silver and threw them in the Lord's house for the potter.

¹⁴Then I cut in two my other staff, Bonds, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

¹⁵And the Lord said to me,

"Take for yourself the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

¹⁶For indeed, I will raise up a shepherd in the land who will not care for those who are cut off, nor seek the young one, nor heal those who are broken, nor feed those who still stand.

But he will eat the flesh of the fat and tear their hooves in pieces!

¹⁷"Woe to the worthless shepherd who leaves the flock!

The sword shall be against his arm and against his right eye.

His arm shall completely wither, and his right eye shall be totally blinded."

THEY shall look upon Me whom they have pierced

Yes, for Him they shall mourn

In bitterness, so much bitterness,

As one mourns for an only son, the firstborn!

Upon the house of David I will pour out, A spirit of supplication, and also of grace; I will transform their feebleness, And they shall look upon Me whom they have pierced!

ZECHARIAH 12

¹The burden of the word of the Lord against Israel.

Thus says the Lord who stretched out the heavens, and laid the foundation of the earth, and formed the spirit of man within him,

²"Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of drunkenness to the people all around her, when they lay siege against Judah and Jerusalem.

³"In that day I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone,

a very heavy stone for all the peoples.

All who would haul it away will surely be cut in pieces.

All nations of the earth are gathered together against it.

⁴In that day," says the Lord,

"I will strike every horse with confusion, and its rider with madness;

I will open My eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.

⁵"And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart,

"The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in the Lord of hosts, their God."

⁶In that day I will make the governors of Judah like a hearth of fire in the woodpile, and like a torch of fire is in sheaves; they shall devour all the surrounding peoples on the right and on the left; but Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in her boundaries.

⁷“The Lord shall also save the tents of Judah first, so the glory the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, will not become greater than that of Judah. ⁸“In that day the Lord will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

He who is feeble among them in that day shall be like David, and the house of David shall be like God, like the angel of the Lord before them.

⁹“It shall be in that day that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

¹⁰“And I will pour on the house of David, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Spirit of grace and supplication. Then they will look on Me whom they have pierced.

Yes, for Him they will mourn as one mourns for his only son, and be in bitterness for Him, as one grieves for a firstborn.

¹¹“In that day there shall be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hadad-rimmon in the valley of Megiddo.

¹²And the land shall mourn, every family by itself:

the family of the house of David by itself, and the wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves;

¹³the family of the house of Levi by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of Shimei by itself, and their wives by themselves,

¹⁴and all the families that remain, every family by itself, and their wives by themselves.”

 When all nations shall come
 From year to year to worship Him,
 And the bells on every horse
 Are all ringing with one chord,
 And the melody sweet,
Is HOLINESS TO THE LORD!

ZECHARIAH 14

- ¹Behold the day of the Lord is coming, and your spoil will be divided in your midst.
- ²For I will gather all the nations to battle against Jerusalem; the city shall be taken, the houses rifled and the women ravished. Half the city shall go into captivity, but the remnant of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

- ⁴And in that day His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, which faces Jerusalem on the east. And the Mount of Olives shall be split in two, from east to west, making a very large valley; half of the mountain shall move toward the north, and half of it toward the south.
- ⁵Then you shall flee through the valley of My mountain, for the mountain's valley shall reach to Azal. You shall flee as though you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. And the Lord my God will come, and all the saints with You.

- ⁷It shall be one day which is known to the Lord; neither day nor night. But at the evening time it shall happen that it will be light.

¹³ It shall come to pass in that day, that a great panic from the Lord will be among them.

Everyone will seize the hand of his neighbor, and raise his hand against his neighbor's hand.

¹⁴ Judah also will fight at Jerusalem.

And the wealth of all the surrounding nations shall be gathered together:

gold, silver and apparel in great abundance.

¹⁵ So shall be the plague on the horse and the mule, on the camel and the donkey, and on all the cattle that will be in those camps. So shall this plague be.

¹⁶ And it shall come to pass that everyone who is left of all nations that came against Jerusalem, shall go up from year to year to worship the King, Lord of hosts, and to keep the feasts of tabernacles.

¹⁷ And it shall be that whichever of the families of the earth do not come up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, on them there will be no rain.
